ALCOTT HANDWRITTEN PAGE FROM MANUSCRIPT FOR JACK AND JILL

29. ALCOTT, LOUISA MAY. MANUSCRIPT PAGE - HANDWRITTEN FROM JACK AND JILL. Offered here is a handwritten page from Alcott's manuscript for Jack and Jill, published in 1880, unsigned as is common for her manuscript pages. It is written in ink on one side of a sheet of paper measuring 7 3/4 x 9 3/4", in fine condition and housed in a cloth chemise and slip case. It is found on page 12 of the book beginning chapter II. It reads:

Chapter II Two Penitents

Jack and Jill never cared to say much / about the night which followed the first / toasting party of the season, for it was the / saddest & the hardest their short lives had / ever known. Jack suffered most in body / for the setting of the broken leg was such / a painful job that it wrung several sharp / cries from him & made Frank who / helped quite weak & white with sympathy / when it was over. The wounded head ached / dreadfully & the poor boy felt as if bruised / all over for he had the worst of the fall. / Dr. Whiting spoke cheerfully of the case / & made so light of broken legs that Jack / innocently asked if he should not be / up in a week or so. / "Well, no, it usually takes twenty one days / for bones to knit, & young ones make quick / work of it," answered the Dr. with a last - (SEE ALSO REAR COVER)

ALCOTT, STOWE AND MUCH MORE

30. ALCOTT, LOUISA MAY. NELLY'S HOSPITAL [IN] OUR YOUNG FOLKS VOLUME 1. Offered here is the bound volume of the first 12 issues of Our Young Folks published in 1865 in Boston by Ticknor and Fields. 8vo (6 x 8 3/4"), original publisher's green cloth with extensive gilt pictorial spine, 808p., occasional margin soil else near Fine. The 11 page story of Nelly's Hospital appears in the April issue and deals with a little girl who, in her quest to become a nurse, learns compassion by caring for small wounded animals. Alcott herself had been a Civil War nurse and no doubt drew upon that experience in writing the story. She also champions the idea of a woman taking charge of her own life independent of a man. The story was published separately and distributed by the U.S. Sanitary Commission some time in 1865. This volume also contains work by Harriet Beecher Stowe, Longfellow and host of other important American authors and it is profusely illustrated with woodcuts. BAL 150. $400.00

ORIGINAL BEAR DRAWINGS

44. (ANDERSON, C.W.) illus. HONEY THE CITY BEAR by Madalena Paltenghi. Offered here is all of Anderson's original artwork for Honey The City Bear published in 1937. Comprised of ALL OF THE ORIGINAL PEN AND INK DRAWINGS FOR THE FULL PAGE PLATES AS WELL AS THE ORIGINAL TAILPIECE, COVER DRAWING AND TITLE PAGE LETTERING. Sold with a copy of the book. In printed form in the book the full page drawings are 8 x 10" but the original art is larger at 9 3/4" wide x 12" high. Pencil captions in Anderson's hand are in the bottom margins as well as penciled production notes on the side. All are signed and in fine condition. The art is really exquisite, finely detailed and conveying the essence of the story without need for words. The book is about an adorable, lonely baby bear in a city zoo that is sold to a zoo in Nashua New Hampshire. In transit to the new zoo, Honey escapes, has adventures, encounters many things he had never seen before but is eventually taken to his new home where he finds another bear to be his friend. C.W. Anderson (Clarence William) is best known for his horse books but in Honey his artistic talent is on par with the best illustrators of the century. (SEE ALSO INSIDE REAR COVER) $3850.00

DE LA MARE'S FIRST BOOK

INSCRIBED & WITH LETTER - DOYLE FRONTIS
 149.[DE LA MARE,WALTER]. SONGS OF CHILDHOOD by Walter Ramal. Lond.: Longmans Green 1902. 12mo, blue cloth stamped in gold, parchment spine, top edge gilt, other edges uncut, 106p., Fine in custom cloth case. 1st edition of de la Mare's first book using his pen name of Walter Ramal. The poems are for children of all ages, including Dame Hickory, As Lucy Went a Walking, etc. Illustrated with a gravure frontis by RICHARD DOYLE captioned Under The Dock Leaves. THIS COPY IS INSCRIBED BY DE LA MARE AND ALSO HAS A 1 PAGE HAND-WRITTEN LETTER FROM DE LA MARE LAID-IN. The book is inscribed by de la Mare to his friend J.N. Hart dated Jan 1942 and he has written 12 lines of verse from his poem "Gone" which appeared in Bells and Grass published the previous year. PLUS: Laid in is a handwritten letter on 2 sides of an 8vo sheet of paper that came to Hart with the book. It reads in part: "Dear Hart, "With you away this brightest day" - are you oft reminded of the old song? Of course it is a joy to scribble my name in the book and I've added the last rhyme in Bells and Grass just to bring things full circle as it were.... It's been ages since we met and I feasted my eyes on your gardens, etc.... It would be delightful to come and lunch with you at the Constitutional, may I let you have a word when the chance offers." and he ends "With all my good wishes for 1942, Your (?) W.J. de la Mare." It is interesting to read how Doyle's illustration came to be used. De la Mare's brother in law introduced him to a literary agent who in turn introduced them to Andrew Lang, an advisor to the publisher. When Longman decided to publish de la Mare's book, Lang offered his prized Doyle watercolor for the book. De la Mare felt that if the poems were good enough, one's imagination could provide the pictures, but as a newcomer he accepted the offer. This is a special copy of a rare book. De La Mare See also 312. $3850.00

WONDERFUL DENSLOW ART

154. (DENSLOW, W.W.) illus. ORIGINAL ART: TOM, TOM THE PIPER'S SON FROM MOTHER GOOSE. Offered here is a large and wonderful finished pen and ink drawing for Ye Old Time Nursery Rhymes by Mother Goose. Although the book with this title was actually published in 1939 by Baldwin & Strachan in Buffalo when the art was re-discovered (after Denslow's death), the art itself was most likely executed circa 1910 when Denslow was actively illustrating advertising booklets. In their bibliography of Denslow, Greene and Hearn write about this art as follows: "The drawings were discovered in 1939 in the scrapbook of one William W. Reed. Since a man named Horace Reed was connected with Niagara Lithograph Company, it is likely that Denslow drew the pictures for one of his advertising pamphlets. The pictures first appeared in Youth Magazine, a hand-out to patrons of Dodd's Dairy in Buffalo. In issue eleven, this pamphlet was announced as available from Dodd's milkmen for ten cents." Executed on Strathmore drawing board measuring 19 1/2" wide x 14 1/2" high, the image nearly fills the entire space. Other images are available.. This is a rare opportunity to own very fine published work by Denslow. $6000.00

UNUSUAL INDIAN FANTASY

213. FANTASY. THE CLAN OF MUNES by Frederick J. Waugh. NY: Charles Scribner 1916 (Nov. 1916). Large oblong 4to, (57)p. minimal wear, near Fine. 1st edition of the author's first and only book. Printed on heavy coated paper. A tale of Tlingit and Haida Indians wherein a wizard from the north took eroded and rotted spruce stumps and created bizarre creatures called Munes, and this is their story. Illustrated with the most fabulous full page plates (8 color and 20 black and white) plus decorative initials and illustrations in-text. A very unusual book with very strange illustrations. The tree people in "Clan" were based on actual trees found in Cathedral Woods at the artists retreat on Monhegan Island, Maine. The retreat was founded by Rockwell Kent and Waugh was among the many noted artists who spent time there. He had hoped to write a book to rival Alice's Adventures in Wonderland but it did not sell well and the publishers eventually sold the remaining copies which were eventually destroyed. $850.00

FREEMAN'S WATERCOLOR MOCK-UP

225.FREEMAN,DON. ONE MORE ACORN - MOCK-UP. Offered here is Freeman's full size mock-up for One More Acorn published by Viking in 2010. The story follows the trials and tribulations of a Washington D.C. squirrel named Earl that needs to find its hidden acorns before winter arrives. Although the mock-up dates from the 1970's, Freeman could not get it published before his death in 1978. Freeman's son discovered the mock-up and with some editing and finishing touches, it was finally published in 2010. The mock-up measures 12 1/2 x 10 3/4" high and is mostly loose in a perfect bound artist's sketch book with a hand-lettered cover. The title page offers an alternate title of All For An Acorn. Inside there are 7 double-page and 36 single page watercolors to accompany the story. The text is typed with some pencil changes and is pasted on. It is a charming story and this is a wonderful piece. (SEE ALSO REAR COVER) $4850.00

First edition. Featuring 323 illustrations consisting of 210 full page engraved plates plus numerous vignettes all depicting Grandville's unusual humanized animals and insects in exquisite detail. His animals in human dress present a superb satire of French manners, politics and customs. Ray (in The Art of the French Illustrated Book p.273-5) notes that P.J. Stahl was really a pseudonym for the publisher Hetzel "who was the moving force behind the book. ... Hetzel's primary objective was 'to give words to Grandville's marvelous animals.'" Ray adds "It should be noted that the engravings for this book are by Beviere, the one craftsman whose renderings of his work Grandville refused to criticize." WITH A LETTER FROM THE AUTHOR JOHNSTON

293. JOHNSTON, ANNIE FELLOWS. THE LITTLE COLONEL. Boston: Joseph Knight 1896 (1896). 8vo, green cloth stamped in black, green and gold, 102p. + ads, Fine condition in custom cloth chemise and slip case. 1st edition, first issue of this classic, with no mention of the Cozy Corner Series. Illustrated in black and white by Etheldred Barry. LAID-IN IS A HANDWRITTEN LETTER FROM JOHNSTON TO A FAN. Annie Fellows Johnston received tremendous fame and popularity around the turn of the 20th century as an author of books for children. She is best known for her thirteen book series beginning with The Little Colonel, although she wrote over forty books in all. Hattie Cochrane (1891-1975), a friend of Johnston's, would become the model for her character Little Colonel, a precocious young girl growing up in aristocratic Kentucky prone to bullying and temper tantrums. In 1935, Twentieth Century Fox released "The Little Colonel," a film directed by David Butler, with Shirley Temple playing the part of the Little Colonel, a role well suited to her. Lionel Barrymore played the part of the Old Colonel. Peter Parley to Penrod, p. 103. Very scarce and a special copy. $1500.00

GEORGE SHRINKS FABULOUS WATERCOLOR (LATER ANIMATED)

295. JOYCE, WILLIAM. GEORGE SHRINKS - ORIGINAL ART - HIS PARENTS HAD LEFT HIM A NOTE (GEORGE ON BED). Offered here is an original watercolor by award winning children's book artist Joyce, that was used in his charming fantasy "George Shrinks" (published by Harper Collins). Done on artist board measuring 15" wide x 10", with the actual image measuring 9 3/4" x 6 3/4". Signed and in an acid free mat. The image appears on Page 4 (His parents had left him a note). George is sitting on his bed, his stuffed animal, which is gigantic compared to George is next to him. The note and a clock are on the side table and other toys are in the background. $4500.00

Joyce's style features meticulous attention to detail. George Shrinks was later animated for a PBS Saturday morning show. In an online interview from the publisher's home page, Joyce offers this insight when asked where the idea for George came from: "Ever since I was a little kid, I have loved stories about people who were the wrong size. King Kong was too big for everything, and Stuart Little was way too small. One day I found some of my old toys in a box. Mixed up with all the dinosaurs and army men was a little airplane that had a tiny pilot, and that got me thinking. What if a boy named George shrank one day while his parents were away? What would he do? Would it be fun? Would it be scary? What would he eat? So that's what I made George Shrinks about -- how neat it would be if, just for one day, you were the same size as your toys. And of course I had George fly in that toy airplane."

299.KING,JESSIE. SEVEN HAPPY DAYS. Lond: The International Studio Supp. New Year 1914. 4to, wraps, some cover soil and tears, VG. This is a series of magnificent color illustrations heightened with gold and silver, with 7 smaller black and white illustrations. Some of her most beautiful work. Laid in is an ORIGINAL WATER COLOR plus a handwritten letter with a sketch housed in the original mailing envelope. The letter is one 4to sheet of King's embossed Greengate stationery. Dated 1947 King writes: "Dear [picture of a zebra with a green circle around its head]- Thank you so much for the gift o' sox. As they were not nylons I know you were thinking of Erne's [her husband E.A. Taylor] feet but I write for him as we are one. It was very thoughtful of you to send us such appreciation and I hope you will accept this queer coat of arms in retaliation! [signed by Jessie with E.A.T.'s initials below]. On the bottom left of the letter is the key to reading the coat of arms and she has added "I hope you like it". On a separate sheet of art paper folded in half is a lovely watercolor drawing of the coat of arms referred to in the letter. The image measures 3.5 x 3". Depicted is a zebra standing over a small cottage with a green gate out front. Riding on the zebra's back is a bird with a yellow halo around its head. On top of the bird is a pair of scissors and a pair of patterned socks. It is inscribed "Good Greeting to A.J. Bennett from E.A.T. & J.M.K." He finds a beautiful pigeon named Panessa but when their chicks are born they are dark grey, not white. Disgusted with Panessa he throws them out, only to be saved by them when a storm comes through. The moral of the story is that it doesn't matter what color you are. The text is in large calligraphy and the full color illustrations are fabulous. $400.00

RARE AMERICAN PICTURE BOOK - WORD PLAY

430. PICTURE BOOK. THE SURPRISE BOOK by Nell K. McElhone. NY: Frederick Stokes 1901 (Oct. 1901). Large oblong 4to (12 1/2 x 8"), yellow pictorial cloth, small rub spot in margin of one page else near fine. 1st edition. Printed on coated paper on one side of the page only, the pages alternate between the text in verse and full page half-tone illustrations by Albertine Randall Wheelan. The purpose of the book is to demonstrate how words can have more than one meaning or that words that sound the same have completely different meanings. The verses are riddles with the answers to be found on the pictures that follow. For instance, there is a poem entitled The Contrary Children: "They, when requested to be quiet / Made a noise to kill; / When they were urged to make a racket / Then they all kept still." The illustration shows children working quietly while stringing a tennis racket. The lovely black and white plates are done in typical turn of the 19th century style. One of the great American picture books of that era and a rare title. $450.00

FAVORSKI - RUSSIAN THEATRE

486. RUSSIAN. (FAVORSKI, VLADIMIR) 5 FAVORSKI BOOKS. Offered here are 5 books illustrated by Vladimir Favorski, the noted (and eccentric) woodcut artist who maintained an active working life that spanned his lifetime (1884-1964). Although Favorski began his work before the Revolution, his fame came from his post Revolutionary work which emphasized the art of the book. Although his style may have changed over the years, his emphasis on uniting the layout, typography and illustration with the text of the book remained the same. The 5 books included here offer a good example of the range of his work. The first 3 books date from the late 1920's and 1930's and Pushkin's Little Tragedies (#4) is one of his last works. One book includes a signed woodcut, one is a signed/limited edition and all are in extremely clean and bright condition. Most importantly is the inclusion of an excellent reference work on Favorski's life and work in English. Each is beautifully illustrated. Sold as a collection $2500.00

1. Pushkin, A. Domik v Kolomne [Cottage at Kolomna]. 1929. 4to, pictorial boards, sl. dusty, near fine. NUMBER 166 OF AN UNSPECIFIED LIMITATION SIGNED BY FAVORSKI. Pushkin's play is illus. with 3 full page woodcuts and many beautiful woodcut vignettes.

2. Globa, Andrei. Petr Petr [Peter, Peter]. 1929. A play, illus. with cover woodcut and woodcut frontis by Favorski.

3. Moskovskii Teatr Revolyutsii 1922-1932. Published in 1933. 4to, boards, [222] fine in frayed dust wrapper. A fascinating contemporary look at the theatre in post-revolutionary Russia, illustrated with dozens of tipped-in illustrations. Illus. by Favorski with dust wrapper woodcut, pictorial endpapers, double-page frontis with pictorial title and with small vignette on second title. Laid in is a fine woodcut of actress Maria Babanova as Goga in A. Faiko's play The Man with a Briefcase, dated 1933 in the block and SIGNED IN PENCIL BY FAVORSKI. (cont'd next column)

4. Pushkin, A. Malenkie Tragedii [Little Tragedies]. Moscow 1961. 4to, pictorial cloth, [109]p., fine in slightly worn dust wrapper. Text features 4 plays by Pushkin including Mozart and Salieri, Stone Guest, Feast During the Plague and one other. Illus. with a profusion of full and partial page woodcuts all throughout the text and with beautiful color dust wrapper.

5. Vladimir Favorski compiled by Yuri Molok, into. by Mikhail Alpatov, trans. from the Russian by Avril Pyman. Moscow: Progress Pub. 1967. 4to, boards, 322p., covers sl. finger soil else fine in slightly worn slipcase. The definitive work on Favorski with articles on him as well as by him. Profusely illustrated.

SENDAK MICKEY MOUSE COLOR DRAWING

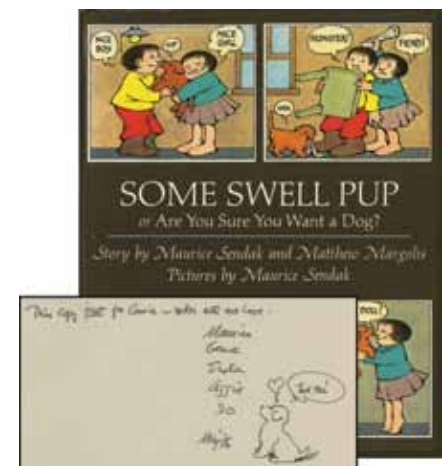

490.(SENDAK,MAURICE)illus. ORIGINAL COLOR DRAWING OF MICKEY MOUSE. This is a fabulous original color drawing of Mickey Mouse executed by Sendak as a birthday gift for the brother of his housekeeper. The image measures 4 x 5 1/2" matted and framed to 9 1/4 x 11 1/4". Depicted is a large Mickey Mouse holding a pitchfork with the word's "Happy Birthday Peter" in a balloon over his head (faint smudge in the balloon). Inscribed by Sendak underneath the image: "Eugene Glynn and Maurice Sendak July 6, '74". Glynn was a friend of Sendak's. The image is especially meaningful considering Sendak's lifelong admiration of Mickey - they were both "born" the same year and Lanes (p.9) notes that "Mickey Mouse was one of the dominant figures of his childhood." $6500.00

FINE 1ST INSCRIBED WITH DRAWING

491.SENDAK,MAURICE. WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE. NY: Harper Row, 1963. Oblong 4to (10 1/4 x 9 1/4"), cloth backed pictorial boards. Except for the most minute bit of edge rubbing, this is a Fine copy in a VG-Fine dust wrapper with price intact.(dw has 4 very short inconspicuous archival mends otherwise clean and beautiful). 1st edition of one of the most important modern picture books and winner of the Caldecott Award. First edition dust wrappers are distinctive not for the issue price ($3.50) but for the content of the information on the flaps. A first edition has no mention of this title having won the Caldecott Award amongst other changes from the first (in fact it is not uncommon to find a dust wrapper with the $3.50 issue price but with the later wrapper blurbs). THIS COPY IS INSCRIBED BY SENDAK AND HAS A GREAT 2" DRAWING OF A WILD THING SAYING "BOO!". This is a great copy of one of the best picture books of all time. $32,500.00

CHARMING SHEPARD ORIGINAL ART

512. (SHEPARD, ERNEST H.) illus. ORIGINAL ART - PERFUME FROM PROVENCE. Offered here are 3 of the original drawings by Shepard used in Perfume From Provence by Lady Fortescue that was first published in 1935. They are all pen and ink drawings executed on artist's board with the original art larger than the printed versions. They are all captioned below the image in pencil in Shepard's hand, all are signed in the images and also signed on the backs of the boards. They are sold with a hard cover copy of the book, all housed together in a handsome custom 1/4 leather backed box (SEE ALSO INSIDE REAR COVER).

(A) The first drawing appears on page 66 and is captioned in pencil by Shepard "It was hard to lose a daughter of hardly seventeen". The image measures 4 3/4" wide x 6 1/2" high.
(B) The next image appears on page 86 and is captioned in pencil by Shepard "Champagne corks popped". The image measures 7" square.
(C) The last image appears on page 104 and is captioned in Shepard's hand "Grasping the receiver in floury hands". The image measures 3 1/2" wide x 4 3/4".

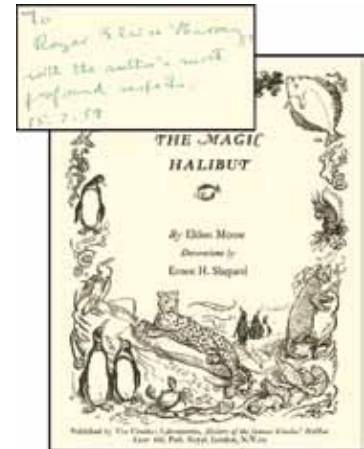

Today, this title has something of a cult following with renewed interest in all of the books by Lady Fortescue. Shepard's art is perfectly suited to the text, done with his characteristic attention to detail. $5250.00
