01. ALLAIS, M.: The hereditary and relativistic formulation of the demand for money: circular reasoning or a real structural relation? Reprinted from the American Economic Review, volume LXV, number 3, June 1975. 8vo; pp. 454-464; in red printed wrappers, clean and crisp, a very good copy.

sold

“The March 1972 issue of this Review carries a note by J.L. Scadding on various aspects of the reformulation of the Quantity Theory of Money which I have put forward. Although his comments seem to me to rest on factual errors and paralogisms, they are well worth discussing, for Scadding’s view of the basic significance of the new hereditary and relativistic theory seems to be shared by some economists.” (see p. 454). Maurice Félix Charles Allais (1911-2010) was a French engineer and economist. He was the 1988 winner of the Nobel Memorial Prize in Economics for his pioneering contributions to the theory of markets and efficient utilization of resources.

02. BEHR, Wilhelm Joseph: System der allgemeinen Staatslehre zum Gebrauche für seine Vorlesungen. Erster Band, welcher die allgemeine Einleitung, und den ersten Theil der Staatslehre, nämlich die reine Staatslehre, oder die Staatswissenschaft enthält. (alles Erschienene) Bamberg und Würzburg, bey Jos. Anton Goebhardt, 1804. Ein Band in 8vo; XXII, (4), 404 Seiten, 1 Bl. Errata; türkisfarbener Pappband der Zeit, gering berieben und minimal fleckig, Rückenvergoldung und goldgeprägte Rückenschilder, gelber Schnitt, gestochenes Wappenexlibris „G.C. v. Fechenbach“, innen sauber und frisch, ein sehr gutes und dekoratives Exemplar.

480 €

Erste Ausgabe, selten. Wilhelm Joseph Behr (1775-1851) war Staatsrechtslehrer an der Universität Würzburg und Politiker. Er ist der Verfasser zahlreicher Schriften zur Staatswissenschaft, Verfassungsfragen, Staatswirtschaft und Finanzverwaltung. Humpert 7693, Mohl I, S. 137

03. BOUCHAUD, (M.A.): De l’impôt du vingtième sur les successions, et de l’impôt sur les marchandises chez les Romains. Paris, chez De Bure père, 1766. One volume in 8vo; pp. XVI, 482 (recte 483), (3); contemporary speckled calf, spine end with small restorations, raised bands, spine gilt in compartments with gilt lettering-piece, red edges, marbled endpapers, mild age-toning towards top edge, else clean and crisp, a good copy.

480 €

First edition. Mathieu Antoine Bouchaud (1719-1804) was professor of law at the Collège de France, economist, contributor to the Encyclopédie and politician. INED 685, Goldsmiths 10214 A, Higgs 3828, Stammhammer Finanzen p. 322, Stourm p. 110

Dedicated by the author

04. BROOKINGS, Robert S.: Industrial ownership, its economic and social significance. New York, The Macmillan Company, February 1925. One volume in small 8vo; pp. X, (4), 107, (1), 3 leaves blank; original publisher's red cloth, a bit rubbed at extremities and very slightly soiled, gilt lettering to spine and blind-stamped lettering to front cover, handwritten dedication by the author on front flyleaf, mild age-toning throughout, else clean and crisp, a very good copy. 100 €

First edition. R.S. Brookings was a retired business man, university and government administrator, and founder of the Brookings Institution. In this book he considers problems of corporate management, especially the relation of management and capital to labor and the public, stressing the significance of the separation of ownership and management. Larson, Guide to business history, 3612

05. BÜSCHING, Anton Friderich: Der chursächsische Finanz=Staat, in der neuesten Zeit, mit einem historischen Anhang. Halle, verlegt von Joh. Jac. Curt, 1777. Ein Band in kl. 4to; (4), 232 Seiten, zahlreiche Tabellen im Text davon 3 gefaltet; Halbleder der Zeit auf 5 Bänden, gesprenkelte Deckel mit Lederecken, Rückenvergoldung und goldgeprägtes Rückenschild, ein kleines Wurmloch im Rückenleder, gering berieben, roter Schnitt, Innenseite der Deckel mit marmoriertem Bezug, nur vereinzelt geringe Bräunung, sonst sauber und frisch, ein sehr gutes Exemplar. 480 €

Erste und einzige Ausgabe, sehr selten. Es handelt sich um einen Abdruck aus dem Magazin für neuere Historie und Geographie, zu dem Büsching bedeutende politisch-statistische Beiträge lieferte. Anton Friderich Büsching (1724-1793) war Theologe, Professor für Philosophie sowie Historiker und Geograph. In seiner Vorrede schreibt er: „Diese Nachrichten von dem chursächsischen Finanzstaat in der neuesten Zeit stehen in dem elften Theil meines Magazins: man hat aber geglaubt, daß es Liebhabern solcher Materien, welche das Magazin nicht besitzen, angenehm seyn werde, wenn man eine kleine Anzahl besonderer Abdrücke von denselben veranstalte. Das ist geschehen. Es ist jetzt fast kein Staat mehr in Europa, dessen Finanzwesen noch ein Geheimnis wäre: und warum sollte man es geheim halten; da der Staat nichts dabey gewinnt, so wie er hingegen bey der Bekanntmachung nichts verliert?“ Stammhammer Finanzen S. 126, Sauer 5/1968: 1171

06. Canon & Mrs. S.A. BARNETT: Towards social reform. London and Leipzig, T. Fisher Unwin, 1909. One volume in 8vo; pp. 352; original publisher's red cloth, gilt lettering to spine, extremities a bit rubbed, covers slightly dust soiled, front edge and lower edge untrimmed, endpapers a bit browned, a very good copy.

First edition. A selection of papers written at different times during 1899 – 1909. The writers believe in progress to a future better than the present, and they – not as socialists nor as individualists – aim to suggest things which can be done at once. These papers are classified in the following chapters: Social reformers, Poverty, Education, Recreation, and Housing.

07. CONDILLAC, l'Abbé de: Le commerce et le gouvernement, considérés relativement l'un à l'autre. Ouvrage élémentaire. Amsterdam et Paris, chez Jombert & Cellot, 1776. One volume in 12mo; pp. (2), VI, II, 586; contemporary marbled calf, raised bands, very little rubbed, one small scratch to back cover, spine richly gilt in compartments with red gilt lettering-piece, marbled endpapers, red edges, engraved armorial exlibris to front cover pastedown, first and last leaf a bit browned, else clean and crisp, a very good and very attractive copy.

As the earliest of three editions published in 1776, this is the first edition. A third part, as indicated at the end of this volume, has never been published. Condillac attempts to define the principal concepts of economics. Jevons calls this book "original and profound". INED 1162, Kress 7200, Goldsmiths 11372, Einaudi 1208, Catalogue P. Sraffa 1059

08. DOWNS, Anthony: Inside Bureaucracy. A Rand Corporation Research Study. Boston, Little, Brown and Company, 1967. One volume in 8vo; XV, (3), 292, (2) pp.; original publisher's brown cloth, very little rubbed, gilt lettering to spine, dust jacket rubbed with a small piece missing at the back and protected in Brodart, inside clean and crisp, a very good+ copy.

First edition, second printing. Anthony Downs (born 1930) is an American economist whose main contributions concern the application of economic analysis to political theory. "Bureaus and bureaucrats, for better or worse, are always with us. Although sometimes a source of frustration to petitioners seeking their services, they are quite essential to our vast and complex society. Thus, it is a delight to find a book that explains their often mysterious behavior. Inside Bureaucracy offers the comforting theory that, as a species, bureaucratic organizations demonstrate predictable traits and habits...(from dust jacket). Blaug, Great Economists since Keynes, pp. 56-57

09. (DUBUCQ, J.B. & P.U. DUBUISSON): Lettres critiques et politiques sur les colonies & le commerce des villes maritimes de France. Genève et the trouve à Paris, 1785. Relié avec : PAINE, Thomas : Remarques sur les erreurs de l'histoire philosophique et politique de Mr. Guillaume Thomas Raynal...Bruxelles, chez B. Le Francq, 1783. Deux ouvrages relié en un volume in-8° ; pp. 14, (2), 292 ; pp. XVI, 127, (1) ; veau jaspé de l'époque, filets dorés sur les plats, dos richement doré avec deux pièces de titre, coiffe supérieure frottée, mors du premier plat affaibli, tranches et gardes marbrées, quelques légères traces de brunissure par endroits, bon exemplaire.

Premier ouvrage : Une des deux éditions de l'année de l'édition originale. De 1727 à 1784, les ports français ont bénéficié d'un monopole sur le commerce avec les Antilles. L'Arrêt du Conseil d'État du 30 août 1784 déclara les ports de Guadeloupe, Tobago, Martinique, Sainte Lucie et Saint Domingue exempté de taxes et provoqua les protestations des marchands dans les ports français. Dubucq & Dubuisson défendirent set Arrêt. INED 1485, Einaudi 1629, Kress B 851.

Deuxième ouvrage : Une des nombreuses éditions de l'année de l'édition originale. Première traduction française des Letters addressed to the Abbé Raynal on the Affairs of North America, Philadelphia 1781. Sabin 58239

10. DUNOYER, Charles-Barthélemy: L'industrie et la morale considerées dans leurs rapports avec la liberté. Paris, chez A. Sautelet et Cie. Libraires, 1825. One volume in 8vo; pp. (6), VIII, 450; contemporary half calf over marbled boards, a bit rubbed at extremities, spine with some gilding and gilt lettering, front and lower edge untrimmed, marbled endpapers, first and last leaves browned, age-toning towards top edge, else clean and crisp, a good copy.

180 €

First edition. Barthélémy Ch.P.J. Dunoyer (1786-1872) was a French economist and publicist. Together with Charles Comte he founded and edited Le Censeur, a journal of institutional and legal reform. He became professor of political economy at the Athénée, later publishing his lectures under the title L'industrie et la morale considerées dans leurs rapports avec la liberté. Dunoyer was part of a group of French radicals who helped create a powerful means of social analysis by fusing liberal historic-political thought with the economic orthodoxy of J.B. Say. (New Palgrave) Menger c. 574, Goldsmiths 24398, Kress C 1413, New Palgrave I, p. 939

In favour of friendly societies

11. EDEN, Sir Frederick Morton: Observations on friendly societies, for the maintenance of the industrious classes, during sickness, infirmity, old age and other exigencies. London, printed for J. White, Fleet Street; and J. Wright, Piccadilly. 1801. One small volume in recent plain paper wrappers, pp. (2), 30; disbound from a sammelband, clean and crisp, very good.

First edition, rare. In this pamphlet Eden describes the working of friendly societies in the 1790s, criticizing as well as providing an account of the benefits of such societies. Kress B 4368, Black 2299

Die wohl umfangreichste Arbeit eines deutschen Ökonomen der damaligen Zeit

12. FAUST VON ASCHAFFENBURG, Maximilian: Consilia pro aerario civili, ecclesiastico et military, public atque privator. Sive, iurium, artium ac remediorum omnium, universi orbis terrarum, dadurch die oberkeitliche Rentcammern und Nahrungscassen der Unterthanen vom Anfang hero, biss zum Ende der Welt, in allen Königreichen, Fürstenthumben, und Herrschaften zu Kriegs- und Friedenszeiten angestellet, vermehret, bereichert, und erhalten werden...Frankfurt, Schleich, 1641. Ein dicker Band in Folio; (62), (2), 1003, (1) Seiten + (122) Index; ein dekoratives Kupferstich-Titelblatt sowie ein in rot und schwarz gedrucktes Text-Titelblatt; Pergamenteinband der Zeit, handschriftlicher Rückentitel verblasst, gestochenes Exlibris auf Titelblatt verso, Kupferstich-Titelblatt mit altem Besizervermerk im oberen Rand, stellenweise etwas stockfleckig oder gebräunt, insgesamt sauberes und gutes Exemplar.

1900 €

Erste Ausgabe. Der Autor, auf dem Titel Maximilian Faust ab Aschaffenburgk genannt, war Rechtsanwalt in Frankfurt und wird in den Bibliographien als Faust von Aschaffenburg geführt. Dieses umfangreiche Werk, teils in Latein und teils in Deutsch verfasst, ist im Stile einer juristisch-ökonomischen Enzyklopädie geschrieben und verfügt entsprechend über ein umfangreiches Stichwortverzeichnis, das alle Bereiche aus Ökonomie, Recht und Politik abdeckt. Wenige Jahre vor dem Ende des 30jährigen Krieges ist ein wesentlicher Schwerpunkt der Geldmangel der öffentlichen Kassen und die Möglichkeiten und Maßnahmen zu dessen Überwindung. Humpert 443, Kress 570, Menger Sp. 13

A brilliant attack on the physiocrats

13. (GALIANI, Ferdinando): Dialogues sur le commerce des bleds. A Londres, 1770. One volume in 8vo ; pp. (4), 314, (2) ; bound in 19th century half morocco over marbled boards, corners strengthened, some gilding and gilt lettering to spine, very little rubbed, first few leaves with very light damp stain at inner margin, speckled edges, clean and crisp, a very good copy.

1500 €

First edition. The Abbé Galiani (1728-87) was a Neapolitan envoy to the Court of Paris. He is well known as a writer on political and economic subjects (i.e. Della moneta, 1750) . In the present work he exposes his ideas about the interdependence of agriculture, manufacture and the size of population, opposing the ideas of the physiocrats. His book created such storm of intermixed praise and criticism that Morellet was commissioned on behalf of the government to answer it (Réfutation de l'ouvrage qui a pour titre: Dialogues...). INED 1948, Kress 6730, Einaudi 2334

14. GEE, Joshua: Considérations sur le commerce et la navigation de la Grande Bretagne. Ouvrage traduit de l'Anglais sur la quatrième édition. À Londres, chez A. Bettesworth & C. Hitch, S. Birt, 1749. One volume in 12mo ; pp. XXVIII, 268; contemporary marbled calf, raised bands, spine gilt in compartments with gilt lettering-piece, covers a bit scratched, marbled endpapers, red edges, lower margin slightly finger soiled in places, occasional light browning, a good copy.

390 €

First edition in French (first published 1729), translated by J.B. de Secondat, son of Montesquieu. The book deals with the trade of the plantations in America and discusses the British trade with New York, New Jersey, New England, Carolina and Pennsylvania. It reviews England's commercial situation and makes suggestions for improvement. Goldsmiths 8382, Einaudi 2424 (later ed.), Menger c. 452

15. GERANDO, (Joseph-Marie von): System der gesamten Armenpflege. Nach den Werken des Herrn von Gérard und eigenen Ansichten von F.J. Buß. Vier Theile in 4 Bänden. Stuttgart, Verlag der J.F. Steinkopf'schen Buchhandlung, 1843-1846. Vier Bände in 8vo; XLII, 438 S.; VII, (1), 472 S.; (4), 428 S.; (4), 668 S.; schwarze Pappbände der Zeit mit Moireepapierbezügen, etwas Rückenvergoldung und goldgeprägtem Titel sowie Bandnummern, leicht berieben und bestossen, gelber Schnitt, handschriftliche Nummer auf Vorsatz, leicht stockfleckig, sonst sauber und frisch, eine sehr gute Reihe.

Erste deutsche Übersetzung von De la bienfaisance publique. Gilt als erstes caritas-wissenschaftliches Werk in deutscher Sprache. Der hochdekorierte französische Staatsbeamte J.-M. Baron de Gérard (1772-1842) trat mit philosophischen und ethnologischen Werken hervor. Seine Publikationen zum Armenwesen haben neben ihrer zeitgenössisch-normativen Bedeutung einen hohen kulturgeschichtlichen Quellenwert. F.J. Buß (1803-1878) war Professor für Staatswissenschaften und Kirchenrecht in Freiburg und wurde 1848 Mitglied der Frankfurter Nationalversammlung. Menger Sp. 701 (italien. EA), Einaudi 2525 (franz. EA), Coquelin & Guillaumin, S. 828-829

16. GROSS, GUSTAV: Die Lehre vom Unternehmergewinn. Leipzig, Verlag von Duncker & Humblot, 1884. Ein Band in 8vo.; VI, (2), 248 Seiten; Halbleinen der Zeit über marmorierten Deckeln, nicht berieben oder bestossen, goldgeprägtes Rückenschild im Stile der Zeit erneuert, marmoriertes Schnitt, Name auf Vorsatz, erste und letzte Blätter leicht stockfleckig, sonst sauber und frisch, sehr gutes Exemplar.

Erste Ausgabe. Grundlegende Arbeit zum Thema sowohl unter betriebswirtschaftlichen, volkswirtschaftlichen wie auch sozialen Gesichtspunkten. Menger Sp. 178, Sauer, 5/1968: 2472

17. GUMPEL, S.: Die Spekulation in Goldminenwerten. Praktische Ratschläge und Belehrungen, mit Karten und Plänen. Freiburg i.Br., Friedrich Ernst Fehsenfeld, 1903. Ein Band in 8vo; VIII, 247, (1) Seiten sowie 5 z.T. gefaltete Pläne; originales grünes Verlagsleinen, Rücken und Vorderdeckel bedruckt, gering berieben oder bestossen, dekorative Vorsätze, unbeschnitten, innen sauber und frisch, ein sehr gutes Exemplar.

Erste Ausgabe. „Es erscheint geradezu unglaublich, wie in unserer aufgeklärten Zeit immer noch selbst bei hochgebildeten und erfahrenen Leuten der Gedanke vorherrschen kann, dass es eine Quelle gibt, durch welche jeder, der den Mut hat, einen Versuch zu machen, zu großen Reichtümern gelangen kann....“

Es ist deshalb der einzige Zweck dieses Buches, das Publikum zum vorsichtigen Spekulieren zu veranlassen, ohne dabei zu unterlassen, alle Schliche und Fallstricke aufzudecken, welche den Unerfahrenen erwarten. (aus dem Vorwort) Das vorliegende Buch ist in drei Kapitel eingeteilt: I. Von der Theorie der Spekulation, II. Von der Praxis der Spekulation, III. Londoner Börsenschwindel. Allgemeine Warnungen.

18. HAYEK, F.A. von: Missbrauch und Verfall der Vernunft. Ein Fragment. Frankfurt am Main, Fritz Knapp Verlag, 1959. Ein Band in 8vo; 359, (1) Seiten; blau-graues Originalleinen, Rücken mit Titelaufdruck, nicht berieben oder bestossen, innen sauber und frisch, sehr gutes Exemplar.

80 €

Erste deutschsprachige Ausgabe des 1955 in den USA erschienenen Werkes The Counter-Revolution of Science.

19. HAYEK, Friedrich A. von: Das intertemporale Gleichgewichtssystem der Preise und die Bewegungen des „Geldwertes“. Ausgebunden aus Weltwirtschaftliches Archiv, Band XXVIII, 1928. Seiten 33-76, Rückenbroschur, von den Rändern her leichte Brauntönung, sonst sehr sauber und frisch, sehr gutes Exemplar.

120 €

Erste Ausgabe. „Der folgende Aufsatz ist bestimmt, einen Abschnitt einer noch nicht abgeschlossenen größeren Arbeit (Geldtheorie und Konjunkturtheorie, 1929) über die Ziele der Geldpolitik zu bilden, in der insbesondere die theoretischen Grundlagen der vielfach vertretenen Forderung nach einer künstlichen Stabilisierung des „Preisniveaus“ mit den Mitteln der Geldpolitik untersucht werden sollen“. (Hayek in der Fußnote auf S. 33)

20. HAYEK, Friedrich A.: Prices and production, with a foreword by Lionel Robbins. London, George Routledge & Sons, Ltd., January 1932. One volume in 8vo: pp. XV, (1), 112, (14); original publisher's blue cloth, gilt lettering to spine, spine slightly darkened, endpapers a bit foxed, else clean and crisp, a very good copy.

250 €

First edition, second printing. Hayek's substantial contribution to the theory of capital and business cycles has been printed almost simultaneously in English and German. It is the printed version of a series of lectures given at the London School of Economics which established Hayek's reputation and made him a professor at this famous institution for many years.

21. HAYEK, F.A.: Studies in philosophy, politics and economics. Chicago, The University of Chicago Press, 1967. One volume in 8vo; pp. X, 356; original publisher's cloth, clean, very little bumped, no dust jacket, inside clean and crisp, a near fine copy.

120 €

First edition. This is a selection from the author's work over the last twenty years; some of these essays are published for the first time.

22. (HERRENSCHWAND, Jean): De l'économie politique et morale de l'espèce humaine. Volume I – volume II. Londres, de l'Imprimerie de Cooper & Graham, 1796. Two volumes in 4to; pp. (XVI), 258, (2) blank; pp. (VI), 333, (1); half calf over marbled boards, rebound to style, gilt spines with red gilt lettering-pieces, speckled edges, wide margins, occasional age-toning or browning in places, else clean and crisp, a very good and attractive set.

1950 €

Rare first edition. J. Herrenschwand (1728-1811) was a late physiocrat but he was not orthodox. Schumpeter described him as an able economist. Blanqui notes "il forme la transition entre l'école de Quesnay et celle d'Adam Smith". This work is divided in 3 parts. In the first part Herrenschwand attempts to define man's true purpose or vraie destination, as he puts it, in the universe. In the second he describes the system of government and political economy which will help him fulfill his purpose, and the second part deals with the morality and system of education needed to help man find his destination. Menger c. 592, INED 2264bis, Kress B 3197, Einaudi 2888, Goldsmiths 16540

23. HICKS, J.R.: Value and capital. An inquiry into some fundamental principles of economic theory. Oxford, at the Clarendon Press, 1939. One volume in 8vo; pp. XI, (1), 331, (1); original publisher's cloth, spine ends bumped, gilt lettering to spine, bottom edge untrimmed, endpapers browned, mild age-toning towards top edge, else clean and crisp, a very good copy.

580 €

First edition, first printing. John R. Hicks (1904-1989) was one of the half-dozen outstanding economic theorists of the 20th century. His masterpiece Value and Capital placed him indisputably in the front ranks a living theorists, and taught a whole generation of economists to employ indifference curves and general equilibrium theory. (Blaug, Great economists since Keynes, pp. 91-93). Lexikon ökonomischer Werke, p. 195-196, Catalogue of the library of Piero Sraffa no. 2503

24. HICKS, J.R.: A revision of demand theory. Oxford, at the Clarendon Press, 1956. One volume in small 8vo; pp. VII, (3), 196; original publisher's cloth, clean, no rubbing or bumping, gilt lettering to spine, dust jacket a bit browned at spine and frayed at spine ends, free endpapers browned, mild age-toning towards top edge, else clean and crisp, a very good copy.

50 €

First edition, first printing. John R. Hicks (1904-1989) was one of the half-dozen outstanding economic theorists of the 20th century. A student of Lionel Robbins, Hicks' works influenced dynamically most serious economists who followed. "The demand theory which is studied in this book is no more, in substance, than the traditional static theory of consumer behavior. It has been written because it has turned out that even in that field there are many new things to be said. Though the author does not accept the view on the nature of the problem which has been put forward by the Revealed Preference school, he finds it possible to reformulate the older theory by the use of their methods, so as to make its most general conclusions easier to reach, and easier to appreciate when they are reached." (from dust jacket)

25. IM HOF, ULRICH: Isaak Iselin, sein Leben und die Entwicklung seines Denkens....., Basel, Benno Schwabe & Co, 1947. 26. JOBERT, AMBROISE: Magnats polonaise et physiocrates français (1767-1774). Paris, Société d'Édition « Les Belles Lettres », 1941. One small volume in 8vo. ; pp. 92; original printed wrappers, spine end bumped and a bit frayed, uncut, clean and crisp, a good very copy.

First edition. One of two print runs in 1941 (one for L'Institut Français de Varsovie and one for L'Institut d'Études Slaves à Paris). The physiocratic theories experienced a remarkable acceptance in Poland. This study examines their impact on persons and institutions and how much they found expression in Polish economic literature.

27. JUSTI, Johann Heinrich Gottlob von: Die Chimäre des Gleichgewichts von Europa, eine Abhandlung worinnen die Richtigkeit und Ungerechtigkeit dieses zeitherigen Lehrgebäudes der Staatskunst deutlich vor Augen geleyet, und dabey allenthalben neue und rührende Betrachtungen über die Ursachen der Kriege und dem wesentlichen Grunde, worauf die Macht eines Staates ankommt, beygebracht werden. Altona, bey David Iversen, 1758. Ein Band in kl. 4to; (8), 119, (1) Seiten; neuerer Halbledereinband eines schwedischen Buchbinders (kl. Etikett auf Innenseite Vorderdeckel) im Stile der Zeit, gesprenkelte Deckel, Lederecken, Rückenvergoldung und goldgeprägtes Rückenschild, Holzschnittvignetten am Anfang und Ende des Textes, unbeschnitten, stellenweise leicht gebräunt, sonst sauber, ein sehr gutes Exemplar.

Erste Ausgabe. J.H.G. von Justi (1717-1771) war einer der großen deutschen politischen und ökonomischen Denker des 18. Jahrhunderts. Dieses Werk ist „eine geistreiche Durchführung des Gedankens, daß ein Gleichgewichtssystem weder rechtlich zu begründen, noch politisch zu erhalten sei, auch praktisch niemals bestanden habe. Die Macht jedes Staates hängt vornehmlich von der Güte seiner Regierung ab; dieses Wachsthum eines Gegners im Innern kann das Ausland ja auch nicht hemmen! Statt dessen empfiehlt Justi den Ängstlichen eine gute Regierung und Defensivbündnisse.“ (Roscher) Menger Sp. 50, Sauer 5/1968: 1206, Roscher S. 450

28. KNIGHT, F.H.: Neglected factors in the problem of normal interest. Reprinted from The Quarterly Journal of Economics, Vol. XXX, published by Harvard University, February, 1916. 8vo; pp. 279-310; original printed paper covers, a bit of age-toning but clean, small splits to spine ends, inside clean and crisp, a very good copy.

60 €

First separate printing. “A systematic discussion of the interest problem falls naturally into four parts, relating respectively to the nature of capital and to the conditions of its supply, its demand, and of equilibrium between the two. About all these issues controversy has raged, nor can agreement be claimed today in regard to a single one of them. This study, which presents a method of attack avoiding some of the most important confusions and occasions of misunderstanding and disagreement, is submitted in the hope that it may make small contributions toward realizing in this troubled field the grand desideratum in economic theory, a body of sound and accepted doctrine in the fundamentals of the science.” (from introduction) Batson 143

29. KNIGHT, Frank H.: The economic order and religion. New York and London, Harper & Brothers Publishers, 1945. One volume in 8vo; pp. VIII, (2), 275, (1); original publisher's cloth, clean, extremities slightly rubbed, gilt lettering to spine, front edge untrimmed, inside clean and crisp, a very good copy.

First edition, printing L-T. This book deals with the practical dualism of our modern morals. With the traditional Christian ethic at one pole and the variegated, often contradictory assemblage of practices and precepts of our secular life at the other, it has never been co-ordinated or made intelligible from within. (from preface)

30. LAW, John: Herrn Laws, Controlleur general der Finanzen in Frankreich, Gedanken vom Waaren= und Geld=Handel, nebst dem erst in Schottland, hernach in Frankreich vorgestellten und angenommenen Project und Systemate der Finanzen...nach dem Französisch= und Englischen Exemplar. Leipzig, bey Jacob Schustern, 1720 (Reprint 1986). Anonyme Schriften betreffend die Finanzspeculationen des John Law: 1. Ausführliche historische und geographische Beschreibung des an dem großen Flusse Mississippi in Nord=America gelegenen herrlichen Landes Louisiana. 2. Gegenwaertiger Zustand derer Finanzen von Frankreich. 3. Curieuse Anmerkungen über den Staat von Frankreich. Leizig 1720 (Reprint 1986). Zwei Bände in kl. 8vo; (14), 135, (1), 32 Seiten; (12), 102 S. und eine gefaltete Landkarte; (12), 252 Seiten; (24), 136 Seiten; rote Kunstlederbände mit Rücken und Deckelvergoldung in einem Pappschuber, sehr gute Erhaltung.

35. MAHY DE CORMERE, G.F.: Mémoire sur les finances et sur le crédit, pour servir de suite aux « Recherches et considérations nouvelles sur les finances », imprimé par Ordre de l'Assemblée Nationale. A Paris, chez l'auteur, Moutard, Desenne, 1789. One volume in 8vo ; 32, 176pp pp. ; modern marbled boards, red gilt lettering-piece to spine, a few leaves with light traces of humidity, else clean and crisp, a good copy.

380 €

First edition. Pages 5-32 contain "Adresse à l'Assemblée Nationale, ou précis des élémens du plan général ». Pages 1-143 « Mémoire général sur le crédit et sur les finances », and pages 145-176 « Observations importantes ». According to Stourm de Corméré was a specialist in public finance and control, and his « mémoire..» gives a very good analysis of the financial mechanisms of his time. Stourm pp. 28,190; INED 3007, Kress B 1655, Goldsmiths 13928.

36. (MIRABEAU, V.R. Marquis de): L'ami des hommes ou traité de la population. Nouvelle édition, augmentée d'une quatrième partie & des sommaires. S.l., s.n., 1758-1760. Six parts in three volumes in 4to; pp. engraved frontispiece, V, (3), 192, (2), 266, (4); pp (6), 263, (1), (8), 278, 80; pp. VIII, 167, (1), (2), 279, (5); contemporary marbled calf, covers with very skillful restorations, raised band, spine with gilt decorations in compartments and two contrasting gilt lettering-pieces, red edges, marbled endpapers, free endpapers with repairs, engraved exlibris to front covers pastedowns, inside clean and crisp, a good set. 3900 €

Second edition for the parts 1-3, original edition for parts 4-6. This work "took the public by storm. The anonymous author was soon revealed, and he became the lion of the hour. The people flocked to see him when he showed himself in public. Tradesmen set up the sign-board of L'ami des hommes, and Mirabeau himself was designated to the day of his death" (Higgs, The Physiocrats, p. 19). Mirabeau's work fell into the hands of Fr. Quesnay who met the author and converted him into a life-long disciple and friend. In 1758 and later Mirabeau's original work (three parts in one volume in 4to in 1756) was expanded by additional parts in some of which Quesnay's influence is clearly visible. L'ami des hommes ran, it is said, through forty editions, and was widely translated. Higgs 1631, Kress 5736, Einaudi 3941

First edition, first printing. This work is a book of outstanding importance and its appearance was a rare event in mathematics and economics. This seminal work "contains a radical re-conceptualization of the basic problems of competition and collaboration as a game of strategy among several agents, as well as an important novel approach in utility theory." (The New Palgrave) IESS XVI, pp. 385-386

46. PARETO, VILFREDO: Les Systèmes Socialistes. Tome Premier – Tome Second. Paris, V. Giard & E. Brière, 1902-1903. Two volumes in 8vo. ; pp. (4), 406, (2); pp. (4), 492; contemporary half morocco over marbled boards, a bit rubbed at extremities, raised bands, some gilding to spine ends, two contrasting gilt lettering-pieces, decorative endpapers, marbled edges, half title of volume I with some browning and a repaired tear, moderate age toning towards edges, else clean and crisp, a very good set. 780 €

First edition. This is Pareto's second major work and an analysis of various types of socialism. The purpose of this book was to set out considered criticisms of liberal beliefs, and therefore of any doctrine based solely on reason. Pareto maintained that socialism took advantage of the desire which every man has of transcending his own state, of imagining new roles for himself and his family, of building castles in the air and rationalizing them, of living in a better world. In this way socialism elaborated on powerful myths and political formulae which could be used to spur the masses into action and, through this action, bring about real changes in every sector of individual and collective life. In brief, socialism mobilized new energies. But more than that, it was a powerful and useful way of organizing the existing minorities by providing them with sufficient energy to gain political power. Liberalism calls on reason; socialism plays on feelings. And since feeling is at the root of human action, socialism is politically more effective than liberalism....(New Palgrave III, p.802), Stammhammer Sozialismus III, p. 255, Lexikon ökonomischer Werke p. 385

47. PASINETTI, Luigi L.: Structural change and economic growth. A theoretical essay on the dynamics of the wealth of nations. Cambridge, Cambridge University Press, 1981. 80 €

First edition. Hector Menteith Robertson (1905-1984) taught economics in Leeds, Cape Town and Melbourne. This criticism of Max Weber and his school is his first major work. "Max Weber is responsible for the opinion that Protestantism, especially in its Puritan form, has had a very great influence in forming the spirit of capitalism. His writings "Die protestantische Ethik und der Geist des Kapitalismus" not only inaugurated a whole literature, they gave a new direction to modern thought on a fundamental problem of economic history. The author claims that they directed it on to the wrong lines." (from dust jacket)

Scarce first edition. "Saint-Péravi (1732-1789) is remembered chiefly for his Mémoire sur les effets de l'impôt indirect...Paris 1768, which owes its fame in part to the Observations sur le mémoire de M. Saint-Péravi of Turgot". (Higgs, p. 76). Saint-Péravi also contributed to the Journal de l'agriculture et du commerce of Dupont de Nemours. He is considered as one of "les économistes de second ordre". In 1789 he took up again the subject of the impôt unique in his Essai sur les principes à adopter par les États-Généraux in order to play a role in the political discussion in France. Coquelin et Guillaumin, II, p. 565; INED 2188, Einaudi 2791

56. SAY, Louis: Considérations sur l'industrie et la législation, sous le rapport de leur influence sur la richesse des états, et examen critique des principaux ouvrages qui ont paru sur l'économie politique. Paris, J.-P. Aillaud, 1822. First edition, rare. Louis-August Say (1774-1840) was the brother of Jean-Batiste Say and a successful business man. The success of his brother's Traité d'économie politique and his tendency to act in an argumentative and critical manner made him write several works on the principal questions of political economy. With this book he supplies a critical analysis of the works of Dupont de Nemours, Adam Smith, Canard, Lauderdale, Ganilh, Ricardo, Malthus, Destut de Tracy, Saint-Chamans and his brother J.B. Say. Kress C 967, Goldsmiths 23443, Einaudi 5129, Coquelin & Guillaumin II, p. 596, Catalogue P. Sraffa 5257

57. SCHMOLLER, Gustav: Die Strassburger Tucher- und Weberzunft und das Deutsche Zunftwesen vom XIII-XVII Jahrhundert. Separatdruck, Strassburg, Verlag Karl J. Trübner, 1881. All three volumes in first edition, rare. "In the study of economic progress, more especially in relation to capital, the development of the joint-stock system occupies an important place. This method of organizing became prominent at an early period in England, and the investigations of it has all the fascination arising out of the small beginnings of a type of association which eventually attained great magnitude. ... At the present time joint-stock management has been standardized. In the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries method were still to be discovered... Not only were the methods new, but the system itself was applied to enterprises which were then novel. Thus early companies were concerned in voyages of discovery, privateering, foreign trade, the exploitation of new inventions and the financing of the government. In these early ventures there is a remarkable freshness in the point of view of the shareholders, and their speech and writings are characterized by vigour and directness." (from preface). First French edition of this important work (PMM 403). F.W.Taylor, an engineer at Bethlehem Steel in Philadelphia, developed scientific management with the aim of maximising the output of production units. In his preface he points out the great loss through inefficiency. He therefore laid down the main lines to increase efficiency by standardizing processes and machinery, regulating timing and movements etc.

Tercera impresion, corregida, y enmendada por el autor. Spanish mercantilist treatise on commerce and navigation which was first published in 1724. The book was written with the purpose to restore Spanish power. Uztariz argues for a powerful navy and a well protected trade. His work offers a lot of information on the Spanish trade, its commercial and colonial policy, its population, finance etc. Kress 5657, Einaudi 5793, Colmeiro 381

62. VAUVILLIERS, (J.F.): Examen historique et politique du gouvernement de Sparte; ou letter à un ami sur la legislation de Lycurge, en réponse aux doutes proposes par M. l'Abbé de Mably, contre l'ordre naturel et essential des societies politiques. Paris, chez Desaint, 1769. One volume in 12mo; pp. VIII, 174, (2); contemporary half calf over marbled boards, spine with some gilding and red gilt lettering-piece, sprinkled edges, age-toning throughout, else clean, a good copy. 580 €

Scarce first edition. Jean-François de Vauvilliers (1738-1801) was a famous hellenist and a professor at the Collège de France. He made contributions to the Ephémérides du Citoyen and was an adherent of the physiocratic school. In this work he argues against Mably's Doutes proposées aux philosophes économistes. Mably pretended that the institution of landed property was neither right nor necessary for the prosperity of society, and he used Sparte as the example claiming that landed property had been absent in this ancient Greek state. Vauvilliers shows in his work that (without landed property) the prosperity of the lacedemonians was by far not as durable as Mably pretended. Higgs 4566, Higgs The Physiocrats p. 82, INED 4404, Kress S. 4609

63. WEBER, Max: Die römische Agrargeschichte in ihrer Bedeutung für das Staats- und Privatrecht. Stuttgart, Verlag von Ferdinand Enke, 1891.
