National Library of Australia No.1

August/September 1988

Whitlam launches ANB

The Australian National Bibliography 1901-1950 (ANB) represents a milestone in Australian publishing and is one of the Library's two major contributions to our bicentenary. The other is the exhibition, People, Print & Paper.

The ANB 1901-1950 plugs what is often called "the Ferguson Gap": the years between Sir John Ferguson's Bibliography of Australia (1784-1900) and 1950 when the National Library began producing its Annual Catalogue of Australian Publications and was superseded a decade later by the Australian National Bibliography.

Ms Whitlam said: "This ANB 1901-1950 will be an enduring tribute to what's been built up over many decades..."

He said it would be a great tool for everybody interested in information

A major gap in Australia's bibliographic records was filled earlier this month when former Prime Minister Mr Gough Whitlam launched the Australian National Bibliography 1901-1950 at the National Library.

mentary papers, reprints and ephemera are not included.

The bibliography aims to be a comprehensive and reliable record of Australian social, political, economic and cultural concerns during the period it represents.

Mr Horton said it was appropriate for Mr Whitlam to launch the publication because "he is a lifelong user of libraries, at ease in the world of books, at ease in the world of Australian history and at ease in the broader intellectual life of Australia."

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS:

This is our two hundred and twelfth short list. We hope you find something of interest.

We intend to produce many more lists in future on a variety of subjects and we would prefer where possible to send these by email as PDF file attachments or links to files on our Website. This has the obvious advantage of reducing costs and enhancing the speed of delivery and the email/PDF versions will also be enhanced with colour illustrations. A fully illustrated version of this list in pdf format is also available on our website or will be emailed on request. Likewise we encourage you to send orders by email, fax or telephone.

If you would like to receive future lists please indicate your interests by email (preferred) or by using the form below by fax or post. If you would like to receive ALL lists (email only) please let us know also. If for any reason you do not wish to receive any more of these lists, also please let us know and we will cease and desist.

We have experimented with a number of forms for emailing orders to us but many security systems now prevent such links from working correctly so we suggest simply emailing us at: books@GastonRenard.com and copying and pasting the entries of the items you want from the list above. If you encounter any difficulties, please let us know! For orders by fax or by post please use the Order Form at end.
