- 11 Bond, George. A BRIEF ACCOUNT OF THE COLONY OF PORT-JACKSON, in New South Wales; Its Native Inhabitants, Productions, &c. &c. By George Bond. First published by the Author at Southampton in 1803 and reprinted for Him at Oxford, London, Cork and Dublin in various Years to about 1810. Eighth Edition, faithfully reprinted from the first, incorporating the additions and corrections of the later editions. Edited, with bibliographical notes by Julien Renard. Melbourne: Published by Edition Renard, 2005. 8vo, Limited Edition; pp. [vi], 42(last colophon); sewn in original stiff wrappers, with french fold. Melbourne; Edition Renard; 2005. Limited Edition of 100 copies within a total edition of 200 numbered copies, and now first published since about 1810. All the original editions are of great rarity. No copies of the 2nd or 3rd editions have been recorded and the first (Southampton, 1803) edition is extremely rare, while the 4th (Oxford, 1806), 5th (London, 1809), 5th (i.e. 6th, Cork, undated), and 6th (i.e. 7th, Dublin, also undated), editions are all very rare. The work is of considerable importance as one of the few accounts of Hunter's period as Governor. Hunter was dissatisfied with Bond's behaviour in the colony and complained of him in dispatches. Hunter was instructed to return him to England and Bond left the colony under a cloud in 1800, but his narrative was evidently very popular. He gives an account of the operation of the convict system and the economic corruption in the colony, and describes early efforts to encourage free settlers. He includes also comments on the Aborigines and on the natural history of the colony, including much from first-hand experience. See Ferguson 480; Wantrup, pp. 91-3. #15238

- 41 Jarman, Robert. JOURNAL OF A VOYAGE TO THE SOUTH SEAS, IN THE "JAPAN;" employed in the Sperm Whale Fishery, under the Command of Capt. John May. By Robert Jarman. First published at Beccles and London in 1838. Edited, with an Introduction, Notes, Chronology, and Index, by Robert M. Warneke, and faithfully reprinted from the original. Melbourne: Edition Renard 2009. 8vo, Deluxe Limited New Edition; pp. XII, vi, 242, [243]-318; portrait, introduction, extensive notes, chronology, references and index; fully section-sewn on tapes and hand-bound in original half grey goatskin with black moire cloth sides, top edge dyed, and marker ribbon. Melbourne; Edition Renard; 2009. Deluxe limited edition of 70 numbered copies within the overall limitation of 200 copies for sale. A new edition of the very rare account first published in two issues in 1838 and until now never reprinted - see Forbes 1104, also Bagnall 2685 and Ferguson 2526 (and 2526a). Robert Jarman, the son of a printer at Beccles, joined the crew as a young man of twenty years on a whaling voyage to the South Seas in 1831. During the next three to four years young Robert's forecastle jottings were transformed into a lively and well-crafted tale. The primary theme is the hard, unrelenting search for whales, reflected in Jarman's methodical recording of encounters with other whalers and elaborated with graphic descriptions of the excitements and dangers of whaling with the inevitable accidents, injuries, and tragic deaths. After cruising the Japan Sea, the ship reached the Hawaiian Islands at the end of October 1832 and anchored at Honolulu. "The author noted 18 whalers in port. He describes the harbor and the method by which ships were towed in, and the Honolulu Fort, and the town and its native people" (Forbes). He tells also of surviving gales and near disaster when the Japan was dismasted in a hurricane, which forced the stricken ship to Sydney for extensive repairs. Jarman gives an interesting account of Sydney, with perceptive comments on convicts and their management and the Aborigines and their customs including the use of the boomerang. Subsequently the ship cruised around Rotuma, the Fiji Islands and New Zealand before returning to England. Along the way Jarman gives accounts of visits to bays and islands to trade for fresh provisions, and of longer stays at various ports for wood, water and to benefit the crew. A welcome respite from the rigors and grinding repetition of shipboard life, Jarman was obviously captivated by those of the natives who were friendly, and he perceptively and sympathetically described their modes of life, customs, and the effects of European intercourse and colonization. The scope and appeal of this book is enhanced by some lengthy passages on natural history, including observations on the social behaviour of sperm whales and encounters with sharks, other fish and birds. Because of several chance but pertinent events he was able to include commentaries on several dramatic episodes of Pacific maritime history, such as the Bligh mutiny and its aftermath, and recent massacres of ships crews by islanders — a constant fear for lightly-armed visiting whalers. #27823 A$325.00

- 51 Williamson, Hugh. METHODS OF BOOK DESIGN. The Practice of an Industrial Craft. Second Edition. Med. 8vo, Second Edition; pp. xvi, 436(last 2 blank); frontispiece, 87 illustrations including 16 plates (included in pagination), 68 type examples, 5 appendices including bibliography, index and glossary; original buckram; a very good copy in worn dustwrapper. London; Oxford University Press; 1966. First published in 1956, here revised. "This is by no means an elementary textbook of printing ... The author deals not only with book manufacture as the designer needs to see it, but with such matters as editorial work, the selection and arrangement of type, illustration, jacket design, estimating, and the choice of a printer." - from dustwrapper blurb. The book is one of the best of its kind, containing a great wealth of useful information for anyone with an interest in how a book is designed and made, with chapters on all aspects of type, paper, bookbinding, etc. including useful tables of such things as point sizes, paper sizes, and much else, together with lists of further references to each chapter. This copy has a presentation label to Roy McCullough for excellence in letterpress as 5th year apprentice. #41360 A$75.00

61 FitzRoy, Rear Admiral [Robert]. NOTES ON METEOROLOGY.

Board of Trade. 1859. Compiled by Rear Admiral Fitzroy, F.R.S. First Edition; pp. 36; contemporary half calf (rubbed), with cloth sides, a very good ex-library copy from the New Zealand General Assembly with cancelled label on pastedown and a single stamp at head of Page 3, otherwise nice and clean; rare. London; Printed by George Eyre and William Spottiswoode ... and sold by J. D. Potter, Agent for Admiralty Charts ...; 1859. Fitzroy is probably best known for his role as captain of HMS Beagle during her voyage with Charles Darwin as naturalist and geologist. However he was a pioneering meteorologist, who after a stint as New Zealand's second Governor and further naval service was appointed on the recommendation of the Royal Society as head of a new department which was to become the Meteorological Office. He was greatly concerned for the safety of seafarers and the possibilities of making weather information more widely available. He directed the design and distribution of a type of barometer which was fixed at every port to be available to crews for consultation before setting out to sea and the invention of several different types of barometers was attributed to him. This is his first work on the weather and the possibilities of prediction by means of barometric measurements. He later, in 1863, published a more substantial book, The Weather Book, since acclaimed as far ahead of the scientific opinion of the time. #67090 A$650.00

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS:

This is our two hundred and fifteenth short list. We hope you find something of interest.

We intend to produce many more lists in future on a variety of subjects and we would prefer where possible to send these by email as PDF file attachments or links to files on our Website. This has the obvious advantage of reducing costs and enhancing the speed of delivery and the email/PDF versions will also be enhanced with colour illustrations. A fully illustrated version of this list in pdf format is also available on our website or will be emailed on request. Likewise we encourage you to send orders by email, fax or telephone.

If you would like to receive future lists please indicate your interests by email (preferred) or by using the form below by fax or post. If you would like to receive ALL lists (email only) please let us know also. If for any reason you do not wish to receive any more of these lists, also please let us know and we will cease and desist.

We have experimented with a number of forms for emailing orders to us but many security systems now prevent such links from working correctly so we suggest simply emailing us at: books@GastonRenard.com and copying and pasting the entries of the items you want from the list above. If you encounter any difficulties, please let us know! For orders by fax or by post please use the Order Form at end.
