Calvert, Esq., F.R.G.S., London, for the purpose of Exploring the remaining blanks of Australia. Presented to both Houses of Parliament by His Excellency's Command. Perth: By Authority: Wm. Alfred Watson, Government Printer. 1902. No. 46. Approximate Cost of Paper: Printing (1200 copies), £75. Lithographing (1,200 Maps), £9 9s. 1d. F'cap folio, First Edition; pp. 62, 2; 4 topographical illustrations in text & large folding map at end; nicely bound in half leather with cloth sides; a very good copy; very scarce. Perth; Wm. Alfred Watson, Government Printer; 1902. ***McLaren 16633. As noted 1200 copies only of this important account were done. A public edition was issued in London in about 1905, an exact, but reset, copy of the present first edition; that edition is of extreme rarity. The expedition was led by Lawrence Allen Wells, who was Surveyor with the Elder Expedition of 1891, and it covered a substantial area of arid northern Western Australia. One of two parties, comprising Wells' cousin Charles and George Jones, a nephew of explorer David Lindsay became lost in the Great Sandy Desert and perished of thirst, terminating the expedition. Several search expeditions were made in attempts to locate the missing men, and reports of these are appended. Wells was vilified by the press on his return for the loss of his men, but was exonerated and praised by a subsequent parliamentary select committee. The map shows also Wells' route on the Elder expedition and those of Giles and other explorers. #67085 A$850.00

Unternehmungen der Gesellschaft zur Beförderung der Entdeckungen im Inneren von Afrika; IV. Robert Norris Reise nach dem Hoflager des Königs von Dahomey Bossa Dhabi, im Jahre 1772. The frontispiece map illustrates Bligh's Narrative, with three smaller insets. The larger map illustrates the African travels with inset of Dahomey, and the four plates are of Australian wildlife illustrating White's Journal. This translation of White's Journal, the first edition in German, is not in Ferguson (but see Addenda, F. 122aa for a similar, but not identical edition). Bligh's Narrative is Ferguson 102 (a skeletal and inadequate entry only) and is also possibly the first edition in German of Bligh's account of the mutiny of the Bounty, however there was another German translation published at Leipzig in the same year in volumes 5-6 of Neue Beytrage zur Volker- und Landerkunde; priority has not been established so far as we know. See Du Rietz's catalogue of the Kroepelien collection, Oslo, 1969, page LXIII, note to 772 and the full entry for the Magazin at page 254. Ferguson's entry refers to the copy in the Kroepelien collection only, and in his collected Addenda it is described (102aa) rather more fully, including two further copies, one in the Ferguson Collection (which is in the National Library of Australia) and another, also in the NLA. That copy is stated to be a 'reprint from' volume 9 of the Magazin. We are not familiar with any reprints of the Australian and Pacific segments of the Magazin, and, as per this entry, Bligh's Narrative is in volume 5 of the Berlin edition of the Magazin, even though it is in volume 9 of the Vienna edition of the Magazin (1792). See also Ferguson 130 and 145 for other similar, but not identical editions. We are indebted to and thank John Fish for assistance in deciphering some of the intricacies of this publication. #67131 AS$750.00

- 51 White, John: VOYAGE A LA NOUVELLE GALLES DU SUD, a Botany-Bay, au Port Jackson, en 1787, 1788, 1789; par John White, Chirurgien en chef de l'établissement des Anglais, dans cette partie du globe; Ouvrage ou l'on trouve de nouveaux details sur le caractere et les usages des habitans du cap de Bonne-Esperance, de l'île Teneriffe, de Rio-Janeiro et de la Nouvelle-Hollande, ainsi qu'une description exacte de plusieurs animaux inconnus jusqu'à present. Traduit de l'Anglais, avec des notes critiques et philosophiques sur l'histoire naturelle et les moeurs; par Charles Pougens. A Paris, Chez Pougin, Imprimeur-Libraire, rue des Peres, No. 9. An 3 de la Republique, (1795, vieux style.) Post or demy 8vo, First French Edition; pp. xii, 206, [2](Table des Matieres), 256(Notes du Traducteur), [4](Table Alphabetique des Notes); contemporary paste-papered boards, rebaked & recornered with calf or kangaroo; (a little foxing at beginning & end; small stain on lower corner of first few leaves); a fine generally clean & crisp copy; rare. Paris; Pougin; 1795. ****Ferguson 231. Without the two plates called for by FERGUSON. We are disposed, however, to challenge his collation. During the past seventy years we have examined many copies of this edition, and not one has contained any plates. The British Museum copy, also, is without them. On the other hand, the "edition" of 1798 (F. 283), which is actually a re-issue of the sheets of the 1795 edition but with a new half-title and title-page, has two plates, which are specified in the title. However, FERGUSON in his description of this issue does not mention the two plates in his collation. We conclude, therefore, that he has confused the two issues, and that his collations require revision. The importance of this translation of WHITE's Journal has consistently been overlooked. The latter part of the Volume (i.e., the 256 pages comprising the "Notes du Traducteur"), which exceeds in volume the work of WHITE itself, consists of detailed analysis, comment, criticism and elaboration of WHITE's Journal, relating WHITE's statements to those in the works of PHILLIP and TENCH, and comparing the country generally, the native people and their ways, the flora and fauna, with those of other lands, as recorded by earlier voyagers and observers, both English and French. POUGENS' Notes with this translation, therefore, entitle it to be considered a separate work in its own right.* #21522 A$1950.00

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS:

This is our two hundred and forty-third short list. We hope you find something of interest.

We intend to produce many more lists in future on a variety of subjects and we would prefer where possible to send these by email as PDF file attachments or links to files on our Website. This has the obvious advantage of reducing costs and enhancing the speed of delivery and the email/PDF versions will also be enhanced with colour illustrations. A fully illustrated version of this list in pdf format is also available on our website or will be emailed on request. Likewise we encourage you to send orders by email, fax or telephone.

If you would like to receive future lists please indicate your interests by email (preferred) or by using the form below by fax or post. If you would like to receive ALL lists (email only) please let us know also. If for any reason you do not wish to receive any more of these lists, also please let us know and we will cease and desist.

We have experimented with a number of forms for emailing orders to us but many security systems now prevent such links from working correctly so we suggest simply emailing us at: books@GastonRenard.com and copying and pasting the entries of the items you want from the list above. If you encounter any difficulties, please let us know! For orders by fax or by post please use the Order Form at end.
