4. Andrade, José Maria Tavares de. Catalogue de la riche bibliothèque. Livres manuscrits et imprimés. Littérature Française et Espagnole. Histoire de l'Afrique, de l'Asie et de l'Amerique. 7000 pièces et volumes avant rapport au Mexique ou imprimés dans ce pays. Leipzig: List & Francke, 1869. ix, 368 pp. 8vo. Later gray library card board binding with original yellow wrappers bound in, spine lettered in manuscript. Palau 12035. Sabin 47037. Jones 2049.
First edition. An extremely important Library "rich in books relating to Mexico, who devoted five pages in the March 1869 issue of the Bibliopolist to the results. Don José Maria Andrade, journalist, publisher, and famous Mexican bibliophile, sold this great collection, which it had taken him over forty years to amass, to Emperor Maximilian, for whom it was to be the foundation of his Biblioteca Imperial de Mejico. However, when Maximilian was shot during the Mexican Revolution, Andrade worried for the collection's safety and smuggled it, first on two hundred mules to Vera Cruz, and later by ship, to Europe for auction, where H. H. Bancroft, acquiring the bulk for his Library, said "A sum five times larger than the cost of the books, would not have taken them from me, for I never could buy any considerable part of them again at any price." Boards chipped, wrappers a little soiled, American Antiquarian Society gift bookplate on verso of front wrapper, their blind stamp on title, a few tiny sold stamps, otherwise contents very good. [35734] $400.00

2. ed. pública el presbítero br. Fortino Hipolito Vera ... First published According to Palau, the sheer volume of the the works that Beristáin de Souza saw but which are no longer available compensates for his less than perfect scholarship. The republication had a long and tortuous history, beginning 1842 but not reaching fruition until 1883. Sabin, quoting Ludewig's "Literature of American Aboriginal Languages" writes: "De Souza, is by far the most important work for the literature of New Spain that has ever been composed. It comprises 3687 biographies, and although, like most Spanish works of the kind, singularly uncritical, yet it is a perfect treasure as regards the cultivation of science and literature in Mexico and the adjacent $1000.00 countries. The work is extremely scarce...." HARRISSE, who was no fan of the work, notes that Beristain only lived to see the first 186 pages published, the remainder being composed by his nephew (Bibliotheca Americana Vetustissima, p. xxi). Medina published a fourth volume in 1897. Provenance: John B. Stetson, his Aztec themed bookplate lettered in Greek; Eugene Goupil from Jose Maira Alejo Aubin (stamp of the Collection de E. Eug. First edition. Signed by his editor Maxwell E. Perkins (initialed MEP)) with note good reviews which are in the broadside, which is itself a proof of an advertisement to run in the New Republic in 1926. Published in Spanish as "Cuatro Años Bajo la Media Luna. Su diario e impresiones durante la guerra mundial en los diversos frentes de Europa y Asia" (1924), Four Years Beneath the Crescent was written by Rafael de Nogales, a Venezuelan soldier of fortune, descendant of one of the first Conquistadores and an Indian princess. When the Allies in WWI refused to give him the rank he felt he deserved he offered his services to the Turkish High Command. He was a general in the Turkish army for four years of the war, and, according to him, was sent to the Caucasus on a pretext, where he was to be assassinated; but he escaped. This is an interesting look at the war and one which argues that the army was opposed to the Armenian genocide. Includes a blurb by H. L. Mencken. Folded twice, some edgewear and small tear at one fold. [35619]

First edition. One of the most spectacular auctions of Mexican books and manuscripts. Includes 1290 rare items, many annotated. From his youth, Ramirez had been an avid collector of books and manuscripts. When he transferred from Durango to the national government in 1850, he sold the greater portion of his first library, reserving, however, the rarest works relating to the archaeology, history, and philology of Mexico. These became the foundation of a second library. Ramirez was President of the Emperor Maximilian's First Ministry during the suppression of the monastic orders in Mexico "which gave him extraordinary facilities for acquiring rare Books and Manuscripts." His reputation as a collector, bibliographer, and scholar also enabled him to procure copies of unpublished documents inaccessible to others. Two years later, at the end of the French expedition, Ramirez fled to Europe. Bancroft purchased a large number of items at the auction. "Este catalogo, constituye una de las mejores informaciones en libros americano, especialmente de Mexico," (Palau XV, p. 52.) Provenance: Joseph Martini, his bookplate (Ex Libris Josephi Martini Lucensis, Adsit fortuna non invita minerva;' depicts one blindfolded woman draped in cloth and one armored man with a shield standing above two beasts. Signed in the bottom right 'CDF'). Scarce. Last at auction in 1978. A very good copy, extremities rubbed, edges browned, bookplate on front pastedown. [36275]

First edition. Tomo 1. La noticia de los escritores rabinos españoles desde la época de su literatura hasta el presente; Tomo 2. La noticia de los escritores gentiles españoles, y la de los christianos hasta fines del siglo XIII de la iglesia. An important work by Rodriguez de Castro (1739-1799) which contains much material usually not found elsewhere. Volume 1 covers Iberian Rabbinic authors writing in Spanish, Hebrew, or any other language from the 11th to 17th centuries. Volume 2 covers Spanish writers, Christian and pagan, writing in Latin or in Spanish through the 13th century. "Aunque esta obra quedo sin terminar lo publicado es interesante por extractos de codices y por las muestras ineditas de obras de Astronomos, Cabalistas, Comentadores y Expositores, Filósofos, Gramaticos, Historiadores, Juristas, Matematicos, Medicos, Poetas, predicadores, Retoricos, Talmudistas, Teologos y traductores de judios espanoles," (Palau, Manual del librero hispano-americano, XVII, p.256). Material for an extensive supplement was collected by the author but never published. ABPC shows only two copies at auction in the last 30 years. Sizes not uniform; some dampstaining, mainly to the edges of the first and last two dozen leaves in volume 1 and the top edge in volume 2, minor worming in blank margins, 19th-century institutional stamp on first text page in each volume; unidentified branded ownership mark on top edges, otherwise leaves quite bright.
