Published by Cornell University Press in Association with The New York Botanical Garden. The authors present a comprehensive method for identifying angiosperms on the basis of leaf characteristics and argue that at times this may be the most reliable and practical way for both botanists in the field and paleobotanists to make these identifications. Fine new copy. $25.00

Trees & Shrubs of Massachusetts

46. Emerson, George B. - REPORT ON THE TREES AND SHRUBS Growing Naturally in the Forests of Massachusetts. "Fourth Edition." 2 volumes. 149 plates called for but due to misnumberings actually only 147 present (V.1-81 plates; V.2-66 plates). Two of the "plates" (#2 & #3) are actually text figures; 6 of the plates are actually 3 plates with two images each (#95/96, #101/102, and #105/106); 2 of the plates (#72 & #149) were apparently never included; and 5 unlisted plates appear (9a, 31a, 33a, 130a & 144a). pp.xxi,318: ix,(319)-624. Original green cloth with gilt lettering on spine and blind stamped panels on covers. Boston 1887 (c.1875).

Lightly scuffed, some browning, writing on bottom margin of two pages. With the bookplate of "Alice O. Hastings, Fryeburg, Maine" who in 1890 was an organizing member and secretary of the Woman's Library Club in Fryeburg.

The plates are primarily lithographs of trees, leaves and flowers (a number by Isaac Sprague) as well as some woodland scenes and a photo frontispiece. Though the copyright date on this 1887 work states 1875 (which was the publication date of the second edition), the book differs from it enough to be considered a new edition and not simply a new printing of the second edition. The first edition, issued in 1846 contained far fewer plates. VG set. $300.00

48. Fairchild, Jill, editor - TREES. A Celebration. Richly illustrated with woodcut illustrations of trees and forests. pp.xiii,113. Cloth. NY (1989). Collection of short writings, poems, and excerpts on the subject of trees, by such writers as John Fowles, Jean Giono, Thoreau, Chekhov, Gibbings, Selma Lagerlof, etc. Label removed from inside cover. VG in VG DJ. $15.00

47. Evelyn, John - SYLVA, Or a Discourse of Forest-Trees, and the Propagation of Timber in His Majesties Dominions. As It was Deliver'd in the Royal Society the 15th of October, 1662... TERRA, a Philosophical Essay... To which is Annexed POMONA: or, an Appendix Concerning Fruit-Trees in Relation to Cider... Also KALENDARIUM HORTENSE; or, the Gard'ners Almanac... Third edition. A collection of four works, the first three of which have separate title pages but continuous pagination and the last, Kalendarium Hortense, with a separate title page in red and black as well as separate pagination. One full-page engraving and 3 text engravings in Sylva; 2 text engravings in Pomona. Main title page printed in red and black. pp.(35), 412: 38 (Kalendarium), 1-errata. Folio. Henry #134. London 1679.

Original paneled calf, worn, spine with five raised bands and original red morocco lettering piece. Leaves lightly browned. The covers, endpapers, title page and errata leaf are detached.

In Sylva, which is the main work included here (281pp.), Evelyn protests the gradual destruction of forests in England by the glass and iron furnace operations. This title was first issued in 1664 and was republished in a number of editions thereafter, very often with the other titles that appear here, right through the 19th century. In this third edition of the Sylva, the other works appear in various editions: Terra (2nd edition, 1678); Pomona (3rd edition, 1678); and Kalendarium (5th edition, 1679). $1,000.00

49. Farjon, Alijos - A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF CONIFERS. Selected Literature on Taxonomy and Related Disciplines of the Coniferales. Second edition. Color photo frontispiece. pp.(2), 211. Cloth. 4to. (Richmond, England 2005). Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew. The first edition of this classic bibliography of the subject was published in 1990 and contained 2,130 taxonomic works. This edition expands the listings to 3,787 references and includes more general titles as well as more comprehensive treatment of several families (Araucariaceae, Cupressaceae and Pinaceae). An index of botanical names keyed to relevant publications is found at the rear. Fine new copy in fine DJ. $65.00

50. Fenska, Richard R. - TREE EXPERTS MANUAL. Photos in b&w, some figures. 192pp. Cloth. NY 1947 (c.1943). Reference manual for diagnosing problems of shade and ornamental trees. Pages browning. Good in a DJ which is missing its spine. $10.00

51. Another: THE NEW TREE EXPERTS MANUAL. Second edition. Photos (a number are close-ups) and figures. 238pp. Cloth. NY (1954). VG copy in VG DJ. $15.00

52. Fisk, J. - SUCCESS WITH CLEMATIS. Foreword by Rowland Jackman. 8 color photo plates. pp.xiv,82. Cloth. London & Edinburgh (1962). Corner slightly bumped but overall VG in VG DJ. $10.00

53. Flint, Harrison - THE COUNTRY JOURNAL BOOK OF HARDY TREES AND SHRUBS. Hardiness zone map, many drawings by Allianora Rosse showing full trees and shrubs, plus close-ups of leaves, branches, etc. pp.(5),164. Wraps. Brattleboro, VT 1983. Descriptions, versatility, and cultivation requirements for 60 plants. Fine unused copy. $10.00

54. Foote, Leonard E. & Samuel B. Jones, Jr. - NATIVE SHRUBS & WOODY VINES OF THE SOUTHEAST. Landscaping Uses & Identification. 56 color plates. 199pp. Cloth. Portland, OR (1989). Includes 550 species from 79 plant families with keys and descriptions to accompany the photos, as well as derivation and ecology of plants from the Southeast, (excluding the Florida peninsula) through to east Texas. A rich source for finding interesting and little-known plants for enriching southern gardens. Fine new copy, fine DJ. $25.00

55. Forsell, Mary - THE HERBAL GROVE. A Celebration of the Sacred, Culinary, & Medicinal Life of Trees. Color photos throughout. pp.xv,158. Cloth. Square 8vo. NY 1995. Describes 50 temperate climate species with their history and use; includes some natural remedies and recipes. Fine new copy in fine DJ. $15.00

56. Forsyth, William - A TREATISE ON THE CULTURE AND MANAGEMENT OF FRUIT TREES; in Which a New Method of Pruning and Training is Fully Described. Together with Observations on the Diseases, Defects, and Injuries, in All Kinds of Fruit and Forest Trees; as also, an Account of a Particular Method of Cure. To which are Added, an Introduction and Notes, Adapting the Rules of the Treatise to the Climates and Seasons of the United States of America, by William Cobbett. [Third American edition]. 13 plates (11 folding). 280pp. Albany, NY 1803. Forsyth's work on fruit trees was first

(56 - cont.) published in London 1802. The next year two editions were published in the U.S. (one in Philadelphia and one in Albany, NY) with Cobbett's notes adapting the book to American conditions. The Albany edition offered here is the same as the Philadelphia 1802 edition except it reprints an 8pp. testimonial letter from Peter W. Yates at the rear. This was the first book published in the U.S. devoted exclusively to fruits. Worn calf, cover detached, foxing. Contains the engraved bookplate of Joseph H. Gourley, author of A Text-Book of Pomology, 1922. Good. $100.00

57. Freeman, Orville L. & Michael Frome - THE NATIONAL FORESTS OF AMERICA. Full of color and b&w photos. 194pp. Cloth. 4to. NY & Waukesha, WI (1968). Inscribed Freeman-Mitford

58. Freeman-Mitford, Algernon Bertram - THE BAMBOO GARDEN. 10 b&w plates by Alfred Parsons showing various bamboos. pp.xi,224,(1). White linen binding, top edges gilt. On the cover is a gilt illustration of bamboo with a perched bird. London & NY 1896.

Some moderate soiling to binding, spine darkened, light foxing. Early 20th century bookplate on front paste-down endpaper, bookplate of Cornelius J. Hauck on front free endpaper.

Freeman-Mitford (1837-1916) served as a British diplomat in Japan and was also responsible for making improvements to the gardens of Buckingham Palace. He took a keen interest in bamboo, which he grew at his estate in Batsford. He was also the paternal grandfather of the famous Mitford sisters. In The Bamboo Garden Freeman-Mitford describes hardy bamboo cultivated in Britain and gives information on history, growing habits, cultivation, etc. Inscribed by the author on half-title dated July 11, 1897. $500.00

FRUIT-WALLS IMPROVED,

59. (F.D.,N.) [Fatio de Duillier, Nicolas] - FRUIT-WALLS IMPROVED, by Inclining Them to the Horizon: or, a Way to Build Walls for Fruit-trees; whereby They may Receive More Sunshine, and Heat, than Ordinary. Engraved frontispiece of Hermes with Athena holding a bunch of grapes; in the background is a sloping wall [see cover illustration]. 2 head-piece vignettes and 2 decorative initial letters. There are also 2 folding plates, one of a series of fruit walls and one showing construction details. The plates are by Simon Gribelin. pp.xxviii, (1),128. [a4,b2,c-d4,A4,C-R4]. Square small 4to. Wing F557. Not in Henry or Hunt but see Oak Spring Pomona #15. London 1699.

Contemporary paneled calf, rebacked with hinges repaired, marginal repair in a3, armorial bookplate of Thomas Foley and bookplate of the noted horticulture collector, Marcus Crahan.

Fatio de Duillier (1664-1753) was a Huguenot mathematician, astronomer and friend of Sir Isaac Newton, who in this work describes a method for cultivating espalliered fruits on sloping walls in order to ripen the fruit earlier. This copy does not contain the "Latin Mathematical Treatise" which was bound in by the bookbinder in some copies. An uncommon work.

Series One, published in 1917, contained information on the distribution, cultivation, and classification of rhododendrons; Chinese hybrids, rhododendrons through the year and rhododendron gardens. Following the publication of that volume were many more discoveries and introductions and thus the author states in his preface to this volume his desire that "all this mass of new material should be consolidated with fresh matter... so that the student may find in one volume a concise account of what we now know of the genus and its hybrids." The contents of Series Two include sections on shrub gardening, Chinese rhododendrons, the new hybrids, and a revision of Japanese azaleas. Each "series" comprises an independent work.
