- 21 Darwin, Charles. JOURNAL OF RESEARCHES INTO THE NATURAL HISTORY AND GEOLOGY of the Countries Visited during the Voyage of H.M.S. Beagle Round the World, under the Command of Capt. Fitz Roy, R.N. By Charles Darwin, M.A., F.R.S. New Edition. Cr. 8vo, Second Edition, reissued; pp. viii, 520 (last blank); 14 text illustrations, index; original red cloth of Murray's Colonial & Home Library (spine a little faded), uncut; (slight foxing of edges & a few leaves; a slight crease to front board); a very nice copy; rare. London; John Murray; 1852. Sabin 18647 (third mention); Not in Ferguson; Freeman 17, but without the series title implied in his entry (and never present). The binding has the words 'MURRAY'S COLONIAL & HOME LIBRARY' in a circular design in blind on front cover, but only 'MURRAY' in gilt at foot of spine. Freeman's commentary (page 36) also suggests that the binding of his 17 is devoid of any identification of the series: "gives no indication, in gilt or blind, that the work is one of a series; in this case the edges are sprinkled whereas they are white in the series cases. It was again reprinted in the same series in 1852 and put out in the same case as the third issue [i.e. that referred to above], this time with changed date" This copy therefore may represent an unrecorded variant. #66370 A$2000.00

Cr. 8vo, Second Edition, reissued; pp. xvi(last blank), 520(last blank); 14 text illustrations, index; contemporary full calf, gilt, with marbled endpapers & edges and gilt dentelles; a very nice, most attractive copy; rare. London; John Murray; 1860. Not in Sabin; Not in Ferguson (except by reference - see Ferguson 8957); Freeman 20. The final definitive text, with the addition of a Postscript on Page vii (page viii blank) and the Contents (pp. ix-xv). The four Contents leaves are printed on creamier paper than that used for the earlier preliminaries and the main text (as with all other copies we have seen). Darwin made no further alterations or additions to the text, despite the many subsequent editions (a real gold mine for John Murray, and later, other publishers), Darwin having sold the copyright to Murray for £150. #2172 AS$2400.00

[Drop title]. (Ferguson 7468). All these pamphlets are scarce or very scarce, this collected issue even more so. The introduction [to this collected issue] notes: "The first lecture in this volume inaugurated the winter series, 1869, and was published in pamphlet form, but met with so limited a sale, that it was considered inexpedient to continue the experiment. ... Considerable disappointment and dissatisfaction having been expressed, at the the non-publication of the whole of the first series, the Committee determined to make arrangements for publishing each Lecture of the winter series, 1870." The Early Closing Association was an organisation of retail workers formed in Victoria in the 1850s which had counterparts in the U.K. in the 1840s and similar organisations were founded in South Australia, Queensland and New South Wales in later years. With the object of securing improved working hours and earlier shop closing times, the organisation relied on Public Meetings and 'moral persuasion' rather than strike action. The lectures by M'Coy and Bromby are of particular interest for the ongoing debates between religion and evolution. #65569 A$650.00*

- 40 Grant, James. *THE NARRATIVE OF A VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY, performed in His Majesty's Vessel the Lady Nelson, of Sixty Tons Burthen, with Sliding Keels, in the Years 1800, 1801, and 1802, to New South Wales. By James Grant, Lieutenant in the Royal Navy. Including Remarks on the Cape de Verd Islands, Cape of Good Hope, the hitherto Unknown Parts of New Holland, discovered by him in his Passage (the first ever attempted from Europe) through the Streight separating that Island from the land discovered by Van Dieman [sic]: Together with Various Details of his Interviews with the Natives of New South Wales; Observations on the Soil, Natural Productions, &c. not known or very slightly treated of by former Navigators; with his Voyage home in the Brig Anna Josepha round Cape Horn; and an Account of the Present State of the Falkland Islands. To which is prefixed an Account of the Origin of Sliding Keels, and the Advantages resulting from their Use; With an Appendix of Orders, Certificates, and Examinations, relative to the Trial Cutter. The Whole illustrated with elegant Engravings. London: Printed by C. Roworth, Bell Yard, Fleet Street, for T. Egerton, Military Library, Whitehall. 1803. Demy 4to, First Edition; pp. [iv](title & dedication, versos blank), [ii] (List of Encouragers), [viii](Contents, last Erratum & Directions to the Binder), [v]-xxvi(An Account of the Origin of Sliding Keels), ii, 196(last blank); large folding plan of the sliding keels, folding chart, 1 coloured & 5 b/w. plates, appendix; neatly recased in original papered boards (rebacked, with printed paper label in style similar to original, and free endpapers replaced using contemporary paper; spine ends a little worn); entirely uncut and unopened; an exceptionally fine & clean copy; rare. London; Printed for T. Egerton; 1803. Ferguson 375; Wantrup 75; Hill, page 126. This copy is complete with the rare "List of Encouragers" leaf AND the blank leaf d4, neither mentioned by Ferguson, and one or both not present in most copies. The plates and chart were all engraved by S. I. Neele, 352 Strand and it seems that the work was not in fact published until 1804 as while the coloured plate of the Crested Cockatoo and the plate of the Lady Nelson in the Thames are dated July 1st, 1803 and the chart is dated Dec. 27th 1803, the remaining plates (except that of the sliding keels which is undated) are all dated Jan. 10th 1804. Never having been rebound, this copy has the plates all together, before the main text, with the result that the fine coloured plate of the Crested Cockatoo which almost invariably has the text offset across it, is here unmarked and in its original glory. The "Lady Nelson" was originally sent out to survey the unknown coasts of New Holland and was later chosen to accompany Matthew Flinders' on his circumnavigation of Australia. She accompanied him when he set off, but her slow sailing meant she was unable to keep up and was forced to turn back when she ran aground off the Queensland coast. The voyage included the first navigation of Bass Strait from West to East. The "Lady Nelson" was an experimental vessel, and her performance was of considerable interest to nautical science. Grant was given command rather than the designer Captain Schanck, as it was thought that the experiment would be given a fairer trial. The sliding keels did not, however, make the impact expected in spite of the advantage they presented for surveying in shallow waters. #21808

Melbourne; Melbourne University Press; 1994. Number 16 in the fine series of books published under the Miegunyah Press imprint and a superb and interesting production. This copy inscribed and signed on title-page by the Author. The French explorer, Marion Dufresne has been largely neglected by French, English and Australian writers alike, but he reached Tasmania before the English and his expedition was the first to encounter the Tasmanian Aborigines and amongst the earliest of the European visitors to New Zealand. His life is remarkable for its high adventure and the parallels with the life of the great English navigator, James Cook. He played a part in the rescue from Scotland of Bonnie Prince Charlie, made numerous voyages to the East, including amongst his discoveries the most westerly islands of the Indian Ocean. Like Cook, he was a brilliant mariner who learned his craft in merchant shipping before joining the French Royal Navy, was involved in scientific efforts to observe the transit of Venus, and perished (in New Zealand) at the hands of Polynesian natives. This excellent and well-produced biography fills a glaring gap in the exploration literature and we recommend it highly. Only 1000 copies were printed and it was soon out-of-print. #67627 A$350.00

Apparently an unpublished manuscript, here transcribed in several different but highly legible hands, evidently from the original then in the possession of the author's grand-daughter, Betty Cromb, probably in preparation for publication, with some occasional marginal notes or corrections, together with a copied photograph of the Author, "Yours always, Jim", and an issue of 'Wave, Newsletter of the Barque "Polly Woodside" Volunteers Association' containing two pages of text and two pictures of the "Ellora". The Author joined the "Ellora" at Port Melbourne in October 1889 and the bulk of the manuscript comprises an account of the daily doings of the ship and the experiences of the crew and the Author's experiences ashore in England. The narrative is written in an easy style and relates several incidents including the deaths of some of the crew (from eating rat poison) and of the Skipper. Concluding at Page 153, the "Ellora" narrative is followed by some anecdotes and stories of other ships and seafaring life, also by Conder. The Author later joined the Victorian Navy.*
