London (1866).

Large 4to, viii pp., frontispiece portrait of Walton, map, 24 etched plates, (2 double-page, all of them with very old waterstain to fore-edge margin), original blind-stamped dark red moire cloth, sides lettered gilt, recent very neat red morocco reback, slightly rubbed and sciled, minor wear to corners, contemporary presentation notice on front free endpaper. £280.00

Westwood & Satchell p.60.
A series of views of Dovedale and the area around Ashbourne commissioned by Anderdon. Beresford Hall had been demolished in 1858.

First edition, 8vo, (iv), 300pp., with an original sepia-wash watercolour of the castle by F.C. Pollard dd. 1830 bound in as a frontispiece (offset), some other minor spotting, contemporary gilt-framed diced calf, backstrip gilt though pulled at head and corresponding area weak, green morocco lettering-piece, partially faded but, faults apart, good. 20th-century bookplate.

£150.00

Not in Halkett & Laing and only listed in BLC under the title.

First edition, small 8vo, xi, (iii0, 207pp., original cloth, endpapers spotted, institutional library bookplate plus their relief stamp on title and at head of one or two margins but this not too obtrusive and this apart good.

£85.00

Macmillan p.468. Smart 80.

7. ARQUATUS, Joannes Franciscus. Medicus Reformatus, ab variis in medicina...Venice, Petrum Cieram, 1608.

2 pts., small 4to, (xvi), 116, (xx), 149, (2)pp., engraved title-page device, initials and head-pieces, original vellum, lacking ties, lettered in manuscript, 2 small worm trails in front free endpaper with slightly more damage to front pastedown, tiny wormhole at head of S4 becoming more extensive by back endpapers though only really affecting text (which is still legible) on T4 plus a small trail at foot of T4 and back endpapers though none of this too desperate, old ownership signature at head of title, bookplate of the Auerspergsche Bibliothek, Laybach.

BLC, Bruni & Evans (Italian 17th c.,Books 333) & NLM (17th c. Books 432) record a 1618 edition by the same printer though this appears to comprise the first part (to p.116) only.

Not in Eimas, Norman, Osler, Parkinson, Waller or Wellcome.

Wormeley Edition, 40 vols., 8vo, frontispieces, plates (on India paper), occasional slight spotting, endpapers browned, original dark red buckram with Balzac's signature reproduced in gilt on upper covers, backstrips gilt, g.t., uncut, some very minor soiling and rubbing, similarly minor dampstaining in one corner of first few leaves of final volume but still a good set. Limited edition of 250 copies. £150.00

Breslauer & Folter 166.
'The standard bibliography for American literature before 1930 is a series of author bibliographies for some 300 major writers, chronologically listing all their works published in book form and selected works about them.' - Breslauer & Folter.

Small 4to, (x), 11-167pp., 2pp subscriber list, folding coloured map (with old tape repair to verso of fold), original cloth, lettered gilt, ruled in black, minor wear to backstrip, previous ownership details on front free endpaper including an indication of an association with the author in one instance. £35.00

Not found in BMNH catalogue though other similar works by Bolton are listed.

THE CAPITAL'S POOR

18 vols. (including the separate volume of maps), 8vo, first series in original cloth, remainder in original parchment-backed boards, very good set. £3,800.00

This monumental achievement, in which Booth was assisted by a number of colleagues of whom many had connections with Toynbee Hall in London's East End, was based on in-depth interviews and studies of the living and working conditions of London's working class. Although other surveys of this kind were carried out in the 19th century, this is the one for which the original reports survive. Remains undoubtedly one of the finest surveys of the social conditions of the working class.

First edition, 8vo, viii, 331pp., lacks adverts, some light spotting and soiling, corner tip of back free endpaper torn away, contemporary maroon cloth, backstrip lettered gilt and just very lightly faded, old lending library label on upper cover. £180.00

Fourth edition, revised and augmented, 4 vols., 8vo, frontispiece portrait and folding facsimile in volume 1, occasional light spotting, recent half calf with marbled sides, new endpapers, very good set. £180.00

Second edition, 3 vols., 8vo, half-titles, staining and tears in gutter of title and first text leaf of volume 2, (both leaves holed at head of gutter not affecting text, the text leaf repaired at foot just shaving four letters of text on recto), and B2 loose, original blind-stamped cloth, recased, rebacked in a light purple cloth, gilt-lettered cloth labels, lightly rubbed, without the adverts and with later yellow endpapers (presumably laid down at the time of the repairs), contemporary ownership signature at head of titles. £1,500.00

The second edition, issued just three months after the first, and with Charlotte Bronte's preface and dedication to Thackeray not present there.

First edition, second issue, small 8vo, iv, 165, (2)pp., without the errata slip, original blind-stamped pale lime-green cloth, backstrip slightly faded, small mark on upper cover, joints very lightly rubbed but still good. £850.00

The sisters' first appearance in print. It was, however, an abject failure and while a few copies were given away as presents, Charlotte recorded that only two copies had been sold by June 1847. Of the original printing of 1000 copies, the unsold balance of 961 was transferred from Aylott & Jones to Smith Elder who reissued the book with a cancel title in 1848.

Large 8vo, xii, 160, (1)pp., facsimiles, (1 image inverted), original cloth, good. £20.00

4to, xxv, 184pp., illustrations, original cloth in d.w., very good. £30.00

4to, xxiii, (iii), 82pp., frontispiece, 57 plates, original buckram, gilt, g.t., uncut, good. Limited edition of 120 copies. £195.00

Besterman 1023. Howard Hill I, 2539.

First edition, 8vo, xv, 226pp., 21pp publisher's catalogue, frontispiece, 6 plates, original cloth, gilt, g.t., uncut, original owner's signature and a bookseller's relief stamp on front free endpaper, good. University of Manchester Historical Series X. £85.00

Sixteenth annual edition, 8vo, 104pp., illustrations, some soiling, original cloth, gilt, worn, hinges broken and contents detached. £85.00

First edition, large 8vo, xxxix, 543, (1)pp., 22 plates, illustrations, original cloth, rubbed, new endpapers, sound copy. £125.00
34. BYAM, Edward S. Chronological Memoir of the Three Clerical Brethren...the Reverends Henry, John and Edward Byam; all three sons of Rev. Lawrence Byam, rector of Luckham, in Somersetshire...Ryde (1854).

Small 8vo, viii, (9-)132, (2)pp., original cloth, a little rubbed, presentation inscription from the author on half-title to a Rev. Traherne of Cardiff tipped-in, 20th-century bookplate. £150.00

Green II p.214.
A prime source for the family. Both Henry (in particular) and John were staunch royalists during the Civil War, Henry accompanying the future Charles II to Scilly and becoming a prebendary at Wells and Exeter after the Restoration. Edward Byam spent most of his career in Ireland, being prebend at Cloyne and Clashmore.

35. CANOVA, Antonio and VISCONTI, Ennio. A Letter from the Chevalier Antonio Canova and Two Memoirs read...on the Sculptures in the Collection of the Earl of Elgin... Translated from the French and Italian. London 1816.

First English edition, 8vo, (8, ads.), xxii, (ii), 221pp., original cloth-backed boards, uncut, formerly in a public library with a bookplate, shelf-mark on spine and an occasional relief stamp in text though all of this fairly discreet and overall a good unsophisticated copy. £175.00

Canova wrote an enthusiastic letter to Elgin about the sculptures after visiting London in 1815 although he declined Elgin's invitation to restore them. Visconti had visited London in 1814 to see the marbles and had prepared his memoir on them after returning to Paris.

New edition, 8vo, 150pp., original boards, uncut and unopened, presentation inscription from Geoffrey Howard on front free endpaper, good. £45.00

First edition, 8vo, 192pp., new burgundy half morocco, gilt backstrip, new endpapers, very good. £75.00
38. CHRISTIE, Agatha. They Do It With Mirrors. London 1952.

First edition, 8vo, 192pp., plan, new dark blue half morocco, gilt backstrip, new endpapers, very good. £75.00

First collected edition, 2 vols., large 4to, some light spotting, contemporary gilt-framed calf, backstrips gilt with red and black morocco labels, some wear to extremities, volume 1 rebacked with original backstrip laid down, joints of volume 2 a bit worn but still a nice set with the armorial bookplates of Roger Pettiward of Finborough Hall (Suffolk). £350.00

Large 8vo, (6), 7-60, (2)pp., 22 tipped-in wood engravings by Edward Stamp, each printed numbered and initialled by the artist, original quarter calf with marbled sides, blind-lettered backstrip slightly darkened, slipcase, good. 1 of 50 copies thus, from an edition of 56. £280.00

A collection of 28 poems adorned by Stamp's apt engravings.

4to, 229pp., coloured frontispiece and 2 coloured plates, 420 black and white illustrations, original cloth in d.w., ex-library copy but with barely a mark. £55.00

First English edition, 8vo, x, 336pp., one or two minor spots, new tan half morocco, gilt, marbled sides, new endpapers, name at head of half-title, very good. £95.00

'.the First English Edition..is yet a desirable book..Its text embodies certain corrections which, though duly forwarded to America, did not arrive in time for incorporation in the original edition of the novel.' - Wise.
43. CONRAD, Joseph. The Rover. London 1923.

original buckram, gilt, g.t., uncut, good, former owner's name at head of front free endpaper. Limited edition of 180 copies.   £175.00

Besterman 1474. Howard Hill I, 2867.

45. COURTENAY, (Evelyn), Lady. The Courtenay Family Armorial, containing over two hundred coats of arms taken from those at Powderham Castle, with explanatory notes. London, Bernard Quaritch, 1896.

4to, (x)pp., with 14 chromolitho plates, (13 double-page of bearings, with descriptive text), double-page pedigree, errata, original cloth, g.t., with a 3pp typescript account of a related trip to France loosely inserted.
£280.00

Devon Union List 14760. Spalding I p.350.
A depiction of the shields in the Dining Hall at Powderham. The subscriber list accounts for just 52 copies, most of which seem to have been taken up by family members.

46. CRABBE, George. Poetical Works; with his letters and journal, and his life, by his son. London 1834.

8 vols., small 8vo, additional engraved titles and frontispieces, half-titles present where called for, original blind-stamped cloth, backstrips worn at head and foot, (those of two volumes partially defective, 1 loose), but still a relatively scarce survival of an early publisher's cloth binding.   £55.00

Bareham & GAtrell A48.
The first collected edition of Crabbe's works to be issued after his death and advertised as 'the first complete and uniform edition of the poetical works.'

Third edition, 4 vols., 12mo, frontispiece, 13 plates, (some folding, a few in colour), engraved illustrations, one or two spots, contemporary half calf with marbled sides, gilt backstrips, black morocco labels, slightly rubbed, joints on volume 1 and upper joint of volume 4 splitting else a good set. £350.00

One of the great seminal works in the history of geology. Although bearing the same date as the fourth edition, this (third) edition was the first to appear in four volumes and was issued in 1834.

ROSES IN DECEMBER

Folio, (ii), 266, (1)pp., engraved frontispiece, title and full-page illustrations by Dorothea Braby, original russet half morocco, gilt, g.t., uncut, by Sangorski & Sutcliffe, barely noticeable rubbing on upper corner and the faintest of soiling but still good. 1 of 475 copies thus. £375.00

Cave & Manson 176, pp.192-95. Cokalorum 176.
"...merely to look at this sumptuous book, outside or within, in these exigent times brings the delightful surprise that the sudden blossoming of a rosebush would give in the chilling days of December' - from the review in the T.L.S.

First edition, 8vo, (viii), 242pp., 2pp adverts, new orange half morocco, gilt, new endpapers, very good. £55.00

116. MAYHEW, Henry. London Labour and the London Poor; a cyclopedia of the conditions and earnings of Those that Will Work, Cannot Work and those that will not

4 vols., (volumes 1-3 first edition, volume 4 second edition), 8vo, illustrations, original cloth, backstrips chipped and slightly worn but still a good set of a work uncommon in the original binding. £850.00

The second great survey of the 19th-century working class following Engels and preceding Booth by 30 years.
Mayhew's survey was the first wholly comprehensive review of the living and working conditions of London's poor.

117. MORE, Hannah. Strictures on the Modern System of Female Education. With a view of the principles and conduct prevailing among women of rank and fortune. London 1799.

First edition, 2 vols in 1, small 8vo, xix, 274; vii,
322pp., with half-titles, some occasional light browning, 19th-century half calf with marbled sides, backstrip gilt with red and blue calf labels, marbled edges and endpapers, extremities lightly rubbed but a nice copy.
£375.00

Although some of her ideas and theories are long out of fashion or have been superseded, More's advancements in the history of education, especially for girls, deserve the 'highest praise' (D.N.B.)
A fundamental work not just in the history of women's education but also in the entire feminist movement.

118. MORRIS, William. The Story of the Glittering Plain which has been also called The Land of Living Men or The Acre of the Undying. London 1891.

of works by Morris at end, original maroon cloth, back-strip faded, printed paper label (a bit worn), uncut, bookplate, endpapers browned but textually clean. £35.00
Lemire A86.02.

First edition, 7 vols., 8vo, maps, plans, original cloth, very good set. £1,500.00

'In 1902 there appeared the first instalment of the great 'History of the Peninsula War' upon which he was to labour for nearly thirty years. Its seven massive volumes were based upon minute knowledge of many hitherto unexplored sources, not least upon the Vaughan papers at All Sculs. Oman travelled widely in Spain and Portugal to acquaint himself with the detailed topography of the campaigns and battlefields: at home and abroad his work won full recognition and upon it his reputation most securely rests.' - D.N.B.

PURE MASTERPIECES

121. OVID. L'Art d'Aimer. Translated into French by H. Bornecque. (Lausanne) 1935.

LEADERSHIP, LOYALTY, SURVIVAL

Second impression, 8vo, xxi, 376pp., coloured frontispiece, 87 plates, (1 double-page), 5 maps, (1 folding), original cloth, decorated and lettered in silver, very good copy of a notoriously poorly produced book. £575.00

Produced the month following the first impression on superior paper and with corrections. A great success though the profits went on paying off debts incurred from fitting out the 'Aurora'. 'Shackleton's account is a classic and one of the finest in the Antarctic literature. With his inimitable style he chronicled a great tale - an epic of leadership, loyalty, and survival.' - Rosove.

8vo, 67, (1)pp., original gilt-framed cloth, lightly soiled, good. Limited edition of 50 copies. £30.00

First edition, 8vo, xvi, 310pp., 27 plates, illustrations by Bip Pares, original cloth in d.w., good. £600.00

3 vols., large folio, coloured plates throughout, (some folding), original cloth, in solander cases, good set. £350.00

Howgego II S23. A finely-produced set of a magnificent collection. A German physician, Siebold joined the Dutch colonial army, transferring from Java to Japan in 1823 until he was banished for spying in 1829. His stay there helped establish his reputation as a man of science, assembling a huge collection of Japanese artefacts which finally ended up in Leiden.

Folio, (vi, including subscriber list), 96pp., 24 engraved plates, (1 comprising 2 images), some mostly light spotting or browning, contemporary maroon half morocco, backstrip faded, marbled sides with maroon morocco lettering-piece on upper board, small neat recent signature on preliminary blank, generally slightly rubbed and worn but allowing for the age-related faults still a good sound copy. £250.00

Franklin, Joseph Skelton, A Neglected Oxford Antiquary, (Book Collector, Spring 2010, pp.61-62). The final part of Skelton's great quartet of Oxford Books. A collection of finely illustrated studies depicting the tombs of the founders of Oxford colleges, the locations ranging from Caernarvon and Tewkesbury to Winchester and Lincoln.

Small 4to, iv pp, 50 engraved plates by Spilsbury, spotting and browning throughout (as usual), contemporary crimson straight-grain morocco, sides framed and backstrip decorated in gilt, g.e., joints slightly rubbed, backplate of E.J. Shirley, good.
