First published in London in 1870. - Description of social and up-country life in Canterbury, 1865-1868. 'Lady Barker's (afterwards Lady Broome) (1831-1911) travel books are delightfully eager-spirited and humorous. She became a colourful and tenacious spokeswomen for what her contemporaries like to call the Spirit of the Empire.' (Robinson, Wayward women, p.295-296).
Hocken p.265; NZNB 294; Ellis 805.

3 volumes. Sm.8vo. Original half cloth (top of spines sl. dam.). With 7 coloured double-page or folding maps and 40 wood-engravings. IV,364; 452; 360 pp.  € 225,00
First published in Paris the same year. - 'Le Voyage autour du monde du comte de Beauvoir (1846-1929) a été l'un des plus grands succès de la littérature de voyage vers le fin du XIXe siècle' (Broc, Dictionnaire illustré des explorateurs IV, p.69).
'De Beauvoir's narrative of his travels became immensely popular on account of its perceptive observations of the royal courts of South East Asia, its description of a crocodile and rhinoceros hunt and so on' (Howgego III, p. 63). In Macao De Beauvoir saw the last traces of the Portuguese slave trade. In Australia he visited the gold-fields and then passed to Malaysia via de Barrier Reef and Torres Straits. - A fine illustrated circumnavigation.

4to. Contemorary calf, rebacked with the original spine laid dow, spine richly gilt. With engraved folding plate depicting Tahitian canoes and 5 folding engraved maps. XXVIII,476 pp.  € 4850,00
First English edition; first published in French in Paris in 1771. Louis Antoine Bougainville gives an account of the discovery, occupation and natural history of the Falkland Islands, which he handed over to Spain. He describes in detail the expulsion of the Jesuits of Paraguay, his visits to Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo and Patagonia in South America, the Tuamotu Archipelago, Tahiti (a vocabulary of Tahiti is added), the Samoa Islands, the New Hebrides, the Solomon, Luisiada, and New Britain archipelago, the Moluccas, etc. are described. Bougainville created a great deal of interest among the French in the Pacific and the French philosophers could substantiate the theories concerning the question of the 'noble savage' and the influence of society and it laws on men. On Tahiti became evident that the botanist's valet was a woman, Jeanne Barre; she stayed with the expedition and became the first woman on record to have circumnavigated the globe.

The translator was John Reinhold Forster, the naturalist who accompanied Cook on his second voyage. - A fine copy.

Sabin 6869; Hill 165; Borba de Moraes I, p.115; Dunmore, French explorers in the Pacific pp.58-113; Brosse, Great voyages of discovery, pp.24-32.

First published in London in 1878: A Voyage in the Sunbeam: our home in the Ocean for eleven months. - 'Mrs. Brassey's first book relates her voyage with her husband in the 'Sunbeam' in July 1876. They sailed via Madeira and Tenerife to the West African coast, crossed the Atlantic to South America, then travelled to Japan, calling at various Pacific islands en route. From there they moved by way of Hong Kong and Penang to Ceylon, and then sailed through the Suez Canal to Egypt, from where they returned via Malta and Spain' (Theakstone p.32). The Victorian public welcomed Annie Brassey's (1839-1887) books with an enthusiasm reserved nowadays for episodes of a soap opera. She was rich, carefree, idyllically happy with a handsome, distinguished husband and bonny children, and spent her life enjoying genial adventures at sea... '(Robinson, Wayward women, p. 203-204). - A very fine copy.

8vo. Original decorated red cloth gilt, a.e.g. With 6 coloured maps and 120 woodengraved plates and illustrations. XIV,360 pp. € 150,00
Voyage from England to South America, South Sea islands, Japan, China, Ceylon and Suez. 12 GRANT, James. The narrative of a voyage of discovery, performed in his majesty's vessel The Lady Neldon, of sixty ton's burthen, with sliding keels, in the years 1800, 1801, and 1802, to New South Wales. Including remarks on the Cape de Verd Islands, Cape of Good Hope, the hitherto unknown parts of New Holland .. together with various details of his interviews with the natives of New South Wales
.. London, printed by C. Roworth for T. Egerton, 1803.
4to. Later half calf, spine ribbed and gilt. With large folding engraved plate of a sketch of the boats & a cutter with sliding keels (mounted on linen), folding engraved chart (small tear on fold), handcoloured plate depicting a cockatoo and 5 other engraved plates (one depicting Benelong, a native of New Holland). (14) (including the often missing 'list of the encouragers of this work'), pp.V-XXVI, 195 pp.

First edition; with bookplate of Nancy Kent Perry. - The Lady Nelson sailed through Bass Strait between Tasmania and Victoria, being the first known vessel to do so from west to east. Including the first chart of the southern coast of Victoria. 'Grant's Narrative is a rare book .. It is of the highest significance to any collection of Australian books and no collection of books dealing with coastal discovery or with Victoria can be without it' (Wantrup p.152). - (A few blind-stamped library stamps in margin; some leaves soiled or browned). - A rare major work on Australian coastal exploration.

13 HAWAII. Tropical plantation scene. (No place, second half 19th century). Original watercolour. 10 x 12,5 cm. € 850,00

A beautiful watercolour which, for several reasons, probably depicts an island scene in Hawaii. A gracefully executed pandanus tree dominates the right foreground, balanced by the partially cloud-covered, sharply contoured volcanic mountain in the left background. In the left foreground, a female figure wearing a long skirt and long-sleeved blouse contemplates the water, while behind her in the left middleground are several other figures, one a fully clothed male figure working with a long digging stick. Slightly further behind these figures are two low western style buildings with simple triangular frames. The irrigation channel (similar to those of the Hanalei Valley taro fields on Kauai), the man working with a Polynesian form of digging stick, the style of the houses (similar to that found in Koloa, on Kauai), the volcanic backdrop, the coconut and pandanus trees, and the western style of clothing worn by the figures, all point to a Hawaiian location.

12mo. Contemporary half red morocco (dam.). With engraved title, portrait and 5 engraved plates. VI, 178(6) pp. € 275,00

First published in London in 1789. - In 1783, the ship Antelope was wrecked in the Palau (Pelew) Islands of the Caroline Islands. Captain Henry Wilson became quite friendly with King Abba Thulle, who gave him every assistance in building a new ship, the Oroolong. Prior to its departure, Abba Thulle requested that Captain Wilson take his son, Lee Boo (Libu), along with him to England, to give him a chance to see the world. They travelled to Macao, where captain Wilson and his charge boarded the Morse; they arrived in England in July, 1784. Lee Boo was impressed by the novelties he saw around him and was constantly thinking of possible advantages to his own countrymen. In England, he lived with Captain Wilson and his family, who grew to love him. They took great pains not to let him become exposed to smallpox, but despite all precautions, Lee Bow contracted the disease and died on December 27, 1784 (Hill 813). This account did much to reinforce the idea of the noble savage. - Owner's entry on first free endpaper dated 1805. Cf. Huntress 108 C; Howgego p.1105.

15 KEATE, George. An account of the Pelew Islands, situated in the western part of the Pacific Ocean, composed from the journals and communications of Captain Henry Wilson, and some of his officers, who, in august 1783, were there shipwrecked, in the Antelope, a packet belonging to the Honourable East India Company. Third edition. London, G. Nicol, 1789. 4to. Contemporary tree calf, spine richly gilt with red morocco title-label. With folding engraved chart (with small tear) and 16 engraved portraits and plates (some foxing). XXVIII,378 pp. € 1450,00

First edition published in London in 1788. - In 1783 the East India Packet Antelope under command of Henry Wilson, ran onto a reef near one of the Palau Islands, a previously unexplored group, and was wrecked. The crew reached shore and were well treated by the natives. From the wreck they built a small boat which they managed to get to Macao, taking with them Prince Lee Boo, the son of king Abba Thule. Lee Boo soon died of smallpox in England. Captain Wilson allowed Keate (1729-97) to write a faithful account of the events from Wilson's journals and communications. This account did much to reinforce the idea of the noble savage and it is one of the most popular 18th century books on the Pacific and also the main source of early knowledge of the Palau Islands, the most western group of the Caroline archipelago. Includes a vocabulary of the Pelew language. - A fine copy. Hill 907; Huntress 107C.
16 KOTZEBUE, August Friederich Ferdinand von. Broeder Morits, de zonderlinge; of de volkplanting voor de Pelew-eilanden. Tooneelspel, in drie bedrijven. (Amsterdam, H. Gartman, W. Vermandel, J.W. Smit 1792). Sm.8vo. Later half leather. With engraved plate by Cornelis Brouwer after Jacobus Buijs. 162 pp. € 225,00
Algemeene Spectatoriaale Schouwburg, Vol. VI,2. - A play: Brother Morits, the eccentric, or the settlement on the Pelew Islands written by Kotzebue (1761-1819), who was one of the most popular writers of his time. - Rare.

First edition. - Ferguson 11590a; NZNB L 387; SAB III, p.91.

18 LESSON, (René) Primevère. Voyage autours du monde entrepris par ordre du gouvernement sur la corvette La Coquille. Bruxelles, N.J. Gregoir, V. Wouters et Cie., 1839. 4 volumes in 2. Contemporary half cloth (extremities of spines sl. dam.), spines lettered in gilt. With 4 lithographed frontispieces (sl. foxed). 195; 220; 246; 201 pp. € 375,00
First published the same year in Paris. - René Primevère Lesson (1794-1849) was naturalist on the Coquille during Louis Isidore Duperrey's circumnavigation 1822-25. This expedition achieved notable scientific results. They called at Brazil, the Falkland Islands, Concepción, Callao, Payta, the Tuamotu Archipelago, Tahiti, Port Jackson, Tonga, the Santa Cruz islands, the Moluccas, New Zealand, New Guinea, Java, etc.

20  MÜLLER, Salomon. Reizen en onderzoekingen in den Indischen Archipel, gedaan op last der Nederlandsche Indische regering, tusschen de jaren 1828 en 1836. Nieuwe uitgave, met verbeteringen door den schrijver. Amsterdam, Frederik Muller, 1857. 2 volumes. Original printed boards (spines later half cloth). With 4 folding lithographed maps and 4 (of 5) tinted lithographed plates by E. Spanier. VIII,326; VIII,350 pp. € 675,00 Werken Koninklijk Instituut voor Taal-, Land-, en Volkenkunde. - Salomon Müller (1804-1864) arrived in Batavia in 1826, he was appointed to assist members of the Natural Sciences Commission as a taxidermist. He sailed to New Guinea and Timor on the Triton in 1828 and remained behind at Kupang in October of that year. In 1829 he penetrated into the interior of Timor, and during 1831 he travelled in Java. In the years 1833-1835 he was exploring West Sumatra. With fine maps of South-West New Guinea, Banjermasing (2) and Timor. - Scarce. Bastin-Brommer N 269; Landwehr, Coloured Plates, 379; Tiele 771; Cat. NHSM I, p.247; Cat. KITLV p.4.

21  NEDERLANDSCHE REIZEN, tot bevordering van den koophandel, na de meest afgelegene gewesten des aardkloots. Doormengd met vreemde lotgevallen, en menigvuldige gevaaren, die de Nederlandsche reizigers hebben doorgestaan. Amsterdam, Petrus Conradi & Harlingen, V. van der Plaats, 1784-1787. 14 volumes in 5. Contemporary half calf, spines richly gilt (top of 1 spine very sl. damaged). With 64 engraved plates (including 2 maps), many folding. € 3.250,00 First edition. - Collection of Dutch voyages. The introduction contains a short history of the Dutch East India Company. Volumes 1-3 contain accounts of the voyages to the East before founding of the VOC (Willem Barentsz, Houtman, Van Neck & Warwyk, Van Noort, Jacob Heemskerk, Spilbergen, etc.). Volumes 4-13 contain accounts of VOC voyages (Warwyck, Van der Haghen, Matelief, Van Caerden, Verhoeven, Van den Broeck, Spilbergen, Bontekoe, Tasman, Schouten, De Graaf, Hamel, Roggeveen, etc.). In the last volume several voyages to the West Indies are recounted (Piet Hein, Jol, Johan Maurits, Nieuhof, Reining, Van Berkel, etc.). - Very rare complete set in fine condition. Landwehr, VOC, 272; Tiele 909; not in Cat. NHSM.

22 PORTLOCK, Nathaniel & George DIXON. A voyage round the world; but more particularly to the North-West coast of America: performed in 1785, 1786, 1787, and in 1788, in the King George and Queen Charlotte. London, John Stockdale & George Goulding, 1789. 4to. Contemporary tree-calf (top of spine sl. dam.; hinges restored). With engraved frontispiece portrait of Portlock, 5 handcoloured engravings depicting birds, 6 folding engraved charts and 8 engraved plates. XII,384,XL pp. € 6250,00

First edition; copy on large and thick paper; with armorial bookplate of Samuel Beckwith. - Two ships, the King George and Queen Charlotte, under the commands of Portlock and Dixon were sent out by the King George's Sound Company in 1785 for the purpose of pursuing the fur trade in America and China. Both men had accompanied Captain Cook on his last voyage. After visiting the Falkland Islands, the two ships made a long stay at the Hawaiian Islands, then proceeded to America, they sailed home by way of Macao and St.Helena in 1789. They surveyed the north-west coast of America, which was the most important result of the voyage. This is the principal account of the first commercial voyage to the Northwest Coast and the first English voyage to visit Hawaii after that of Captain James Cook. - Tear in one leaf; dampstain in lower corner of first leaves otherwise fine. - One of the very few copies with coloured plates. Sabin 64389; Howes 494; Lada-Mocarski 42; Hill 1376; Forbes 177.

Third edition, first published in Paris in 1689. - 'A rare and charming book. Raveneau de Lussan, a young Frenchman who whished to see the world, sailed from France for San Domingue in 1679. His indebtedness led him to join the buccaneers in search of his fortune... Raveneau spent several months raiding in the West Indies, and several years raiding the Pacific coast between Guatemala and Chile. He details both the romantic and the bleak sides of the buccaneering profession, interwoven with colorful descriptions of the natives of the regions and a clear picture of the Spanish colonies on the Pacific' (Hill 1423). - (Final leaves waterstained in outer margin). Sabin 67985; European Americana 693/142; Leclerc 487; Cox II, p.270: A very famous and entertaining work.

24  (ROBINSON, Tancred). (Ed.). An account of several late voyages and discoveries ... To which are added, a large introduction and supplement, containing short abstracts of other voyages into those parts, and brief descriptions of them. London, D. Brown, a.o., 1711. Contemporary panelled calf, rebacked with the original spine laid down, spine ribbed and gilt, with red morocco title-label. With 3 large folding engraved maps and 19 engraved plates (7 folding). XXIX,(7),223,(1) pp. € 7950,00

Second edition; first published in London in 1694. - This second edition is preferred because it has the chart of the western and southern oceans, which was not included in the first edition and additional text relating to Greenland and to whales and whaling' (Hill p.525). - Containing I. John NARBROUGH's passage in the Batchelour through the Strait of Magellan and into the South Pacific to Chile, which was much read by later navigators. II. One of the earliest English accounts of Abel Janszoon TASMAN's voyage of 1642 from Batavia, during which he discovered Tasmania and New Zealand and visited Tonga and Fiji; based upon the account by Dirk Rembrantszoon van Nierop (Amsterdam 1674); III. Captains John WOOD and William FLAES, in the ships Speedwel and Prosperous, explored the Northeast Passage and visited Novaya Zembla. IV. The narrative of Friedrich MARTEN's, here first translated into English, was the first book on a voyage to Spitsbergen and Greenland, undertaken for whaling purposes. The editor of this work is believed to be Sir Tancred Robinson. In his lengthy introduction, he speaks of explorations towards the South Terra Incognita, suggests that the Dutch had made great discoveries there which they had never divulged, and also speaks of Ferdinand Magellan, Pedro Fernández de Quirós, Sir Francis Drake, and others who had sailed the South Seas (Hill p.524). - A wealth of travel-accounts. - A fine copy. Hill 1475; European Americana V, 711/183; Sabin 72186; Cox I, p.8

4to. Original printed boards (spine dam.). With frontispiece portrait of the author, 3 lithographed maps and charts (1 folding), 4 hand-coloured and 13 tinted lithographed plates by P.W.M. Trap. XXIV,153 pp. € 1250,00

Original edition published under the auspices of the Koninklijk Instituut voor Taal-, Land- en Volkenkunde. - On Von Rosenberg's (1817-1888) arrival in Indonesia he was appointed assistant to Franz Junghuhn at Padang. He travelled widely through several parts of the East-Indies between 1840-1870, exploring areas in Sumatra, the Moluccas, and certain regions of Teluk Cendrawasih (Geelvink Bay) of West Irian. He concentrates mainly on the natural environment of each region he visited, but also includes special sections on the people and their customs. This book on New Guinea is one of his best known publications, containing beautiful plates. - A good copy. Tiel 939; Cat. NHSM I, p.181; Bastin-Brommer N 616; Landwehr, Coloured Plates, 419; Cat. KITLV p.34.

Original cloth, rebacked with the original spine laid down. With coloured frontispiece, folding map and 40 woodengraved plates and illustrations (2 in colours). X,551 pp. € 375,00

First published in London in 1858. - 'One of the outstanding works on Fiji. Reverend Thomas Williams, of Adelaide, Australia, lived as a Wesleyan missionary in Fiji for thirteen years. Reverend James Calvert, considered the 'father' of the Fiji missions, worked there for seventeen years. The preface to the first volume gives a few guidelines to the pronunciation of the Fijian language. The book contains information on the origins of the natives, their warlike tendencies, industrial produce, manners, customs, religion, and language. The enormity of the task attempted and accomplished in Fiji is a tribute to the persistent endeavors of the various missionary societies at work in the South Seas' (Hill 1885).
- A fine copy.

This is an abridged edition of the work originally published in London in 1837; printed in double columns. Williams was the ablest missionary to the Polynesian people, and his book was the most printed and widely read of all the contemporary accounts' (Hill p.664). - (Soiled).

Ferguson 13816. - (Some small libr. stamps.).

Paton was for six years resident missionary on the West coast of Tanna.

- John Gibson Paton (1824-1907) came to the mission station, together with his wife Mary Ann Robson, at Aneitym, New Hebrides, in 1858. The pair were soon sent on to establish a new station in the island of Tanna, the natives of which were then entirely untouched by Western civilisation. They were thus the first white residents in an island full of naked and painted wildmen, cannibals, utterly regardless of the value of even their own lives, and without any scence of mutual kindness and obligation (DNB).

- A fine set. Ferguson 13921a.

First published in London in 1894. - Margaret Paton was the second wife of pioneer missionary John G. Paton, she went to the Pacific in 1865. They settled on the island of Aniwa. She was 'a woman of great piety and strong character. She showed literary ability in her 'Letters and sketches' (DNB). The book was edited by her brother in law, James Paton. - A fine copy.

'Except when Williams is obsessed with sin and punishment, his Journal makes entertaining and historically valuable reading for the picture it gives of a frontier society, an aboriginal society and the world in which both whites and Maoris lived. Williams appears as a somewhat chauvinistic Yankee, strongly anti-British, and an ardent believer in using the United States Navy to further the commercial interests of her citizens'.
