2 PAGE / 4 SIDED HANDWRITTEN LETTER BY ALCOTT

42. ALCOTT, LOUISA MAY. HANDWRITTEN LETTER. Offered here is a 2 page / 4 sided letter entirely in Alcott's hand, signed by her. Housed in a custom chemise and slip case. The paper measures 7" wide x 9" high and when written was folded in half to make a 4 page letter. Dated Dec. 30th with no year noted but the letter refers to the engagement of Myrtle Whitcomb and Ripley Bartlett who married in 1881. The letter is written to Mrs. Talbot and makes mention of Miss Hosmer whose family were close with the Alcott’s. It reads: Much obliged for your reply on the girl question. // I had already been to Hollis St. to look up a woman who advertised. She was gone, but another was found who had a good character & sent me to her last misses to confirm it. So she is to try for a week & if she suits “all is quiet on the Potomac,” for a time at least // If she doesn’t suit and your girl is still to be had I shall be glad to try her. This domestic upheaval has prevented my running over to see how you were. Better I hope. The weather is not just what one wants for invalids but it’s better than the warm damp days we have had // Poor Mrs. Willis is enjoying measles & very sore throats, & neighbors are all in like case, so I mount guard over the precious baby as I don’t want her to add any other worry to the teething trial. // Can’t Dr. Solhal (?) invent something to make the ---- easier? // Wish I had a million for the Hospital. Mrs. Willis said yesterday, “Well if my sore throat does prove to be diphtheria I shall go at once to the Homeopathic Hospital & there I shall be taken good care of.” “Hear! Hear!” says I. & Mrs. Willis said no more about her homeopathic messes in which she firmly believes. // Mrs. Hosmer dined with me today looking very tired after a long spell of nursing, for Florence has been very ill with the poor eyes and does not leave her room yet. A ground coffee pastry is the next maddeningly exciting event in Concord. // Did you know that [Samuel] Ripley Bartlett was engaged to [Eva] Myrtle Whitcomb? [they were married in 1881 and their daughter Sarah was Librarian at the Concord Free Library]. Also Sallie (?) Bartlett has a son. These thrilling facts are all the news I have to offer. // Hope you like rambling notes for here is a pleasing mixture. Love to the lads & lasses & much to yourself. Yours truly, L.M.A. (SEE ALSO REAR COVER) $4500.00 (SEE ILLUSTRATION TOP OF NEXT COLUMN)

64. BATTLEDORE. The Uncles Present, A New Battledoor. Philadelphia: Jacob Johnson (147 Market St.) (on flap), Philadelphia: Sold by Benjamin Warner (on rear cover), no date circa 1810. 3 3/4 x 6 1/2", brown pictorial wrappers, some darkening of covers else near fine. The front and back covers have woodcuts attributed to W. Mason on the front and A. Anderson on rear. The cover heeds "Read and be Wise" and the flap adds "Come, read and learn." The inside is composed entirely of an alphabet. Unlike most battledores, this has an extra leaf inside allowing for one large illustration for each letter of the ABC. The woodcuts are particularly charming depicting various Cries and the text of the cries use words for the particular letter they represent. Rosenbach says "The Cries illustrating the alphabet are a very pretty set, and are probably an early set of Newcastle or York Cries by BEWICK.... The letters J and U are omitted in order to have 24 letters for 24 compartments." Battledores were learning vehicles that served double duty. Inside the classroom they were used for learning the ABCs but at recess they could be used to play a pre-baseball type game of battledore and shuttlecock. This is one of the best examples of a battledore. Welch 1363. Rosenbach 428 (also pictured). $1200.00

EARLY ABC OF CRIES
INCREDIBLE LETTER FROM BAUM TO NEILL

66. BAUM, L. FRANK. SIGNED LETTER TO JOHN R. NEILL. Offered here is an incredible Oz related letter from Baum to Neill. Typed on Oz Film Manufacturing Stationary (L. Frank Baum President) with Neill illustration in the upper corner. The text fills an entire 8 1/2 x 11 sheet of paper, signed in ink by Baum. The letter begins: "Dear Johnny Neill: Sharpen your pencil, sip an absinth frappe and try to imagine this character in "The Scarecrow of Oz." It is an Ork, quite a prominent actor in the story, and I quote this introduction from the text: [followed by 28 lines of text]. You will observe the Ork is not a water creature, although it first appeared in a cavern, where it had escaped from the clutches of a whirlpool, as had Trot and Cap’n Bill. During the story it flies thru the air with Trot upon its back. There is also the "Bumpy Man" in the story: a fellow with little bumps all over him... The principal character [sic] are Trot, Cap’n Bill, Dorothy, Ozma, Glinda, Wizard, Ork, Bumpy Man, Scarecrow, Button Bright, King Krawl, of Jinxland: Princess Gloria, his niece; Googly Gee, a wealthy old courtier; Pen, a gardener’s boy; a Wicked Witch named Blinkie. Warm regards; congratulations; affection; admiration--to our Johnny from [signed] L. Frank Baum. Letters such as this with the combination of Oz text and the incredible association between author and artist, rarely appear on the market.

NEARLY 50 WATERCOLORS BY BEMELMANS

ARTIST’S DUMMY

73. BEMELMANS, LUDWIG. A TALE OF TWO GLIMPS: ARTIST’S DUMMY. Offered here is the dummy for Bemelmans’ 1946 book published by Columbia Broadcasting System. The dummy is identical in size to the published book measuring oblong 9” x 7 3/4”, bound in white pictorial boards. The pictures and typeset text are mounted separately on each page. It includes 23 full page watercolors, 2 double page watercolors, 2 smaller watercolors, 17 full page and 1 double page pen and inks with grey color wash. There is the expected soil from handling on blank margins, a penciled “x” on edges of some pages and directions to the printer on a few pages. Two pages have 8 illustrations instead of 4 where by lifting up the top picture there is an alternate mounted below. The quality and color of the art is very high and true to the published book - not the rough, primitive style that one often finds with artist dummies. The book tells the story of the lives of two creatures called Glimps”, one of which has a color television and the other owns only a black and white set - Guess whose life is better? This is a fantastic Bemelmans’s item. (SEE ALSO INSIDE FRONT COVER)

1823 SLAVERY / WOMAN
AUTHOR / HAND-COLORED

84. BLACK INTEREST. THE ADVENTURES OF CONGO IN SEARCH OF HIS MASTER: AN AMERICAN TALE [by Eliza Farrar]. London: Harris and Son [1823]. 12mo (4 x 6 1/8”), brown cloth stamped in gilt on spine and blind on covers, 191p. (no booklist), archival repair on title page, one plate and tiny corner of frontis else VG+. First edition. This is a fascinating story based on fact of a freed slave named Congo whose master leaves Virginia for Philadelphia to get away from slavery. Congo goes with him because he can’t seem to leave serving the white folk. His masters are enlightened but are still condescending and treat Congo, a grown man, as a child. When the master’s son goes to England, Congo accompanies him. The two are separated when the ship hits an iceberg and the rest of the book deals with Congo’s efforts and adventures trying to find his master. All aspects of prevailing societal norms are expressed in this narrative with surprisingly little religion. That the author was a woman was revealed on p. 187 where she wrote “These materials that the author offers to HER young readers...”. This was later confirmed when her name, Eliza Ferrar, was used in a later American edition published by Munroe & Francis. In the preface, the author explains that this book is “intended for children from 10 to 12 years of age... Every anecdote in the following pages is taken from real life and all the circumstances of the shipwreck were related to the author by one of the sufferers.” Illustrated with 24 excellent hand-colored engravings on 12 plates and with a title page illustration. See Moon’s Harris bib. variant #7. First editions of this are quite scarce. $2750.00

ANTI-SLAVERY CIVIL WAR BOOK FOR CHILDREN

85. BLACK INTEREST. ANTI-SLAVERY) CUDJO’S CAVE by John Townsend Trowbridge. Boston: J.E. Tilton 1864 (1863). Thin small 8vo (5 x 7 1/4”), green pebbled cloth blind stamped, author’s name omitted from spine, 504p., occasional spot and light cover soil, really VG+. 1st edition. earliest issue (p.3 lists 22 chapters, p.4 lists Envoy at p. 503). The novel is an anti-slavery tale named for Cudjo, an escaped slave from Tennessee who hid in a cave with a Quaker teacher and other Union sympathizers. Trowbridge (a friend of Mark Twain and Walt Whitman) meant to influence his audience about the moral issues of slavery and in Cudjo he offered readers an independent, strong Black protagonist. There is a real Cudjo’s cave in Tennessee that was used for shelter and mined for gunpowder during the war. This is a nice copy of a scarce Peter Parley to Penrod title (p.20). $350.00

JEWISH INTEREST

194. EARLY AMERICAN. JEWISH INTEREST. WARS OF THE JEWS AS RELATED BY JOSEPHUS ADAPTED TO THE CAPACITIES OF YOUNG PERSONS [by C. Johnstone]. Boston: Munro and Frances 1826. 12mo, 1/4 leather and marbled boards, 192p., leather lightly rubbed else VG+. Adapted for youth by “Aunt Jane” who notes: “I address myself to those happy children whose parents and friends have led them to read for instruction as well as for amusement, and to think, and to judge of what they read for themselves”. Illustrated with original engravings for this work by Mr. Brook. The engravings are numbered 2 per page and there should be 24 in all. This copy has a curious combination of engravings not corresponding to the plate list. The list calls for plates 9 and 10 to be together on one leaf, however this copy has plates 10 and 12 together and omits 9 and 11 - obviously a printer error. Flyleaves bear the ownership signatures of three generations of the same family through 1870. $350.00

LANG CAMPBELL'S FABULOUS UNCLE WIGGILY ART

228. GARIS, HOWARD AND LANG CAMPBELL. UNCLE WIGGILY ORIGINAL ART for the comic strip by Howard Garis. Garis originally created Uncle Wiggily for the Newark Evening News in 1910 and it became so popular that it was nationally syndicated on a daily basis. Lang Campbell is the artist who drew the characters which later evolved into many books (and he illustrated for Volland and other publishers as well). Offered here is a selection of 4 panel sequential pen and ink strips that appeared in week days 1925 and a selection of 2 panel pieces that appeared in the Saturday newspapers circa 1925 and a selection of 2 panel pieces which appeared on weekdays accompanied by an 800 word story. The images of the 4 panel pieces measure 12/1/4'' wide by 3 1/2'' high on high quality paper. The 2-panel sheets have images measuring 7 1/4'' wide by 4 1/2'' high with inked captions in Campbell's hand. On the 2-panels, each panel stands alone. The 4 panel pieces are related. All are signed and in very good condition with penciled captions in the margins and with each panel featuring Uncle Wiggily (plus other characters). All of the artwork is remarkably detailed and amazingly none has the usual white-out corrections that usually appear on these types of pieces.

a. Every Dog Has His Day (4 panel pub. 3-31) featuring Uncle Wiggily and Jackie the dog. $600.00

b. Uncle Wiggily’s Tricks: (4 panel pub. 6-8) Try This With Your Piano - featuring Uncle Wiggily, Baby Bunty, Jennie Chipmunk, Jillie Longtail and Mrs. Twistytail. $600.00

CHARMING PATRIOTIC WATERCOLOR

285. (HUMPHREY, MAUD) ORIGINAL ART: GALLANT LITTLE PATRIOTS. This is a charming original watercolor by Maud Humphrey used on the cover (and also inside) of Gallant Little Patriots published by Frederick Stokes in 1899 as well as inside Little Heroes & Heroines also published by Stokes in 1899. The image measures 7 1/2 wide x 8 1/2" high and matted. Done on illustration board that has some margin soil, otherwise fine, signed and dated 1898. The book features little children dressed as real American heroes and heroines. Depicted is a little boy dressed as an injured soldier, holding a cane and saluting. Two lovely girls are looking at him with admiration. Humphrey was one of the first great American women illustrators paving the way for Jessie Willcox Smith, Grace Drayton and the many other women illustrators of the early 20th century. Humphrey is also known for being HUMPHREY BOGART'S MOTHER (and in fact she used her son as a model for many of her pictures). $4750.00

BEZALEL SCHOOL ILLUSTRATOR ZE'EV RABAN

297. JEWISH INTEREST. CHAD GADYA [ONE LITTLE GOAT]. Jerusalem: B'nai Bezalel 1926. 12mo (4 7/8 x 6 5/8"), pictorial wraps, Fine. Chad Gadya is a traditional song of Aramaic origin sung at the end of the Jewish Passover seder service. It is a repetitive rhyme that adds a new verse each time it is sung, in the manner of The House That Jack Built. In fact some scholars believe that it is the origin of that famous children's poem. This version is illustrated by Ze'ev Raban with 10 striking large hand colored illustrations, one for each verse of the song (plus cover which repeats the first illustration). Raban was a major Jewish artist born in Poland. He studied in Munich and Brussels and was heavily influenced by the Jugendstil (art nouveau) movement of that era. He moved to Israel in 1912 and joined Boris Schatz's Bezalel School. This is a fine copy of a rare book. Jewish see also 194, 418, 586. $2000.00

LENSKI ART FROM “COTTON IN MY SACK”

327. LENSKI, LOIS. COTTON IN MY SACK: ORIGINAL ART - FIRE ON THE TRUCK. This offering is for two illustrations matted to form one large double-page pencil drawing by Lenski appearing as a double-page spread on p.156-7 in her 1949 book Cotton In My Sack published by J.B. Lippincott. The fifth of Lenski's "regional" titles, the story describes the hard life of poor sharecroppers in rural Arkansas. Two individual pieces of art are on one card sheet separated by a margin (to accommodate the margins in a book). When matted they present as one continuous picture. Each piece is 9" wide x 12" high, one is signed. The images show a pick-up truck full of cotton in front of the Cotton Boll Cafe in town. The cotton has caught fire and everyone is desperately trying to extinguish it. The text reads "Outside, Joanda ran to the burning truck. She threw the water, paper cup and all, to the ground in disgust. Then she saw a large fat man pulling at one leg of Mama's table." It is amazingly detailed and is reminiscent of the WPA drawings of the 1930's. $1500.00

LENSKI ART FROM “COTTON IN MY SACK”

328. LENSKI, LOIS. COTTON IN MY SACK: ORIGINAL ART. This offering is for two illustrations matted to form one large double-page pencil drawing by Lenski appearing as a double-page spread on p.8-9 in her 1949 book Cotton In My Sack published by J.B. Lippincott. The fifth of Lenski's "regional" titles, the story describes the hard life of poor sharecroppers in rural Arkansas. Two individual pieces of art are on one card sheet separated by a margin (to accommodate the margins in a book). When matted they present as one continuous picture. Each piece is 9" wide x 12" high, one is signed. The images show an Arkansas family (mother, father and 3 children) in the cotton fields weighing a sack of just picked cotton and then piling it on the truck. The text reads "Mama had so many clothes on it was hard to tell whether she was a large or small woman. She wore pants to cover her legs, her cotton dress came to their knees, and over it she wore one of Daddy's old shirts to cover her arms". It is amazingly detailed and is reminiscent of the WPA drawings of the 1930's. $1500.00

CHARMING LENSKI ORIGINAL ART

329. LENSKI, LOIS. WE LIVE IN THE CITY: ORIGINAL ART. Offered here is the original drawing by Lenski for We Live In The City published by J. B. Lippincott in 1954. This is a large double-page pen and ink drawing in black with red decorations. Executed on card measuring 21 1/2" wide x 14 1/2" high with pencil notes to the printer in the margins, the actual image is 19 1/2" wide x 13" high. The now idealized simpler life of the 1950's is shown in detail. Set against a city street, a young boy carries his shoe shining kit, a young girl on roller skates is being pulled by her pet poodle and all manner of vendors are selling their wares. We Live In The City is a title in Lenski's Roundabout America series of books that she created for children too old for picture books but too young for some of her historical fiction titles. This really is a charming piece. $1750.00

347. McPhail, David. The Train. Offered here are two of the illustrator's dummies plus a printed proof copy for this charming book published by Little Brown in 1977. Matthew's toy train in the corner of his room comes alive and Matthew becomes a hero when he repairs the failing engine. The first dummy is an early partial concept sketchbook with no text. The second has text in McPhail's hand and is illustrated on each page with line illustrations - a few of which have color. Also included is a 1st ed. of the published book. A fascinating item. McPhail was born in Newburyport, Mass. He has illustrated the work of others, notably Nancy Willard's Sailing To Cythera which was one of AIGA's 50 Books of the Year in 1974, and he has authored and illustrated a profusion of books on his own. His Captain Toad and the Motorbike was likewise included in AIGA's 1979 show of 50 Best Books. McPhail belongs to the new breed of children's book illustrators, along with James Marshall, Trina Schart Hyman and others - who bring a fresh originality to children's literature. McPhail's style ranges broadly from intricate detail reminiscent of Sendak's and E.H. Shepard's line illustrations to the broad strokes of William Steig. See Hornbook Illustrators of Children's Books, vol. 4, p. 4-5, 143. $600.00

349. Meggendorfer, Lothar. Das Puppenhaus [The Dolls House]. Esslingen und Munchen: J.F. Schreiber, no date, circa 1890. Oblong 4to, some rubbing to paper covers and at folds, VG+ and complete. A pop-up panorama that opens into 6 scenes (2 outside and 4 interiors), this forms the rooms, walls and floors of a doll's house. This is the first edition of the Doll's House with the horse drawn carriage on the first leaf (later replaced with a new illustration of a car). As it is unfolded to its full length of four feet, people, furniture, and even fixtures pop-out and each of the scenes is rich in detail. See Haining (p. 127) who reproduces the French edition of the entire panorama called Maison de Poupée. This is one of the most elaborate and charming of the mechnicals designed by Meggendorfer. $6000.00

In the front of the book are 8 fine chromolithographed illustrations each faced with a page of text. Next to each page of text is an ivory knob that when gently pulled, causes a different animal sound to be produced (bird, cow etc) (nine pulls in all). Haining (Moveable Books p. 136-7) calls this “the piece de resistance of any collection of moveables” and adds that very few complete and fine copies have “survived youthful hands. A nice copy. $2200.00

FABULOUS LARGE TOY THEATRE CYCLORAMA IN ORIGINAL BOX
379. MOVEABLE. (TOY THEATRE) VOYAGE EN AFRIQUE: cyclorama en 22 tableaux [JOURNEY IN AFRICA IN 22 SCENES]. This is a great form of a child’s theatre called a cyclorama that became popular in the 19th century. This example is circa 1880 with no publication information given. The theatre is housed in a box with a large and fantastic chromolithographed scene covering the lid. The box measures 15 1/2” wide x 12 3/4” high and 4” deep. Inside the box is the theatre just slightly smaller than the box. There are 2 doors that open in the center. Both sides of the doors are chromolithographed and one section describes the 22 scenes that the theatre will reveal. The theatre is complete with a separate folding proscenium 11 inches high that attaches to slots on the top of the doors and there are 2 stand alone side pieces of African natives for decoration. Once opened there is a stage with a large window protected with a clear covering. On the top edge of the theatre are slots into which one inserts the crank, that by turning, enables the child to view each of the 22 scenes. The scenes are on one very fine chromolithograph wound on a spool. By turning the crank the viewer is treated to a show detailing the trials and tribulations involved in such a grand trip. This is a wonderful child’s theatre in amazing nice condition. It is complete with both of the wings and crank which often go missing when copies turn up. (SEE ALSO REAR COVER) $7500.00

THREE OZ WATERCOLOR STUDIES

LETTERS AND CARDS

385. [NEILL, JOHN R.] ORIGINAL OZ ART, LETTERS AND CARD DESIGNED BY NEILL FOR LUFKIN FAMILY. Beginning in 1935, a fan of Neill's work started writing to him in admiration - telling him how much she loved the Oz books and how much she especially loved his artwork, adding that his work is what brings the Oz books to life for her. She persistently asked Neill to buy some of his Oz paintings. Over the years, they eventually became good friends and Neill actually dedicated the first Oz book that he wrote - Wonder City of Oz - to them (the Lufkin Family). There are 10 letters through 1943 (the last written to Mrs. Neill on the event of John R.'s death) detailing their growing friendship and outlining business transactions. One letter contains a receipt for $150.00 for a piece of art they bought from Neill.

The family had Neill design a bookplate for them and they commissioned him to paint a large (6 x 4) Oz mural to go over their fireplace in the Connecticut home they called the Land of Oz. Included here are 3 watercolor studies for this mural, each one more detailed than the next. All feature the Cowardly Lion, Tin Man, Scarecrow, Dorothy, Toto, Glinda, the Wizard and more.

A. The first image measures 13" wide x 9.5" high (matted larger)
B. The second image measures 7 x 3/4 x 4 1/2 signed (matted larger)
C. The last measures 12 1/2 x 7 1/2 (matted larger). Each piece is progressively more detailed.
D. There is a large (8 1/2 x 11) Lufkin family Christmas card designed by Neill in which he actually draws their living room depicting the finished mural - with the addition of all of the Oz characters running out of the fireplace.
E. Includes the letters, 2 Christmas cards to Neill, one of which is a photo portrait of the family.

RARE PETER PARLEY TITLE - MASS MARKET ADVENTURE BOOK

401. OPTIC, OLIVER. BOAT CLUB; OR, THE BUNKERS OF RIPPLETON. A Tale for Boys. Boston: Brown, Bazin and Company 1855 (1855). 12mo, (4 3/4 x 6 3/4”), brown pictorial cloth with front cover and spine stamped in gold, all edges gilt, spine ends frayed, light oval stain on endpaper and next 2 leaves, tight, clean and overall VG+. 1st edition, presumable publisher’s presentation binding. Peter Parley To Penrod p. 12 calls for blind stamped covers with only an ornamental panel and publisher’s monogram and no gilt edges. This copy has all edges gilt and the front cover has a gilt vignette of 3 boys on a boat repeated on rear cover in blind stamping. Illustrated with 4 plates. This was only the third book written by the prolific William Taylor Adams (here using his Oliver Optic pseudonym). Before the “Boat Club” American children had few adventure stories available to them. Although not without a moral message, imparting morality was not the main message in this book. This title was a marked change from Sunday School stories or Jacob Abbott’s books. It was so successful that Adams wrote 5 more Boat Club titles creating the first of his prolific adventure tale series and also creating a “first” in mass market publishing for boys. Rare. $1200.00

402. OUTWAITE, IDA RENTOU. FAIRYLAND with verses by Annie R. Rentoul and stories by Grenbry Outhwaite and Annie Rentoul. Melbourne: Ramsay Pub. 1926. Folio (11 1/4 x 15”), blue gilt cloth, top edge gilt, 166 p. including subscriber list, slight bit of cover rubbing else Fine and bright. FIRST EDITION LIMITED TO 1000 NUMBERED COPIES SIGNED BY IDA RENTOU. OUTWAITE on the limitation page. The text consists of three fairy stories and 23 fairy poems and features pictorial endpapers and 51 mounted plates with tissue guards - 19 plates in color and 32 in black and white. There are also drawings in-text. Due to the integrity of the printing plates and the quality of the paper, the illustrations pop with detail that inevitably lessened as more copies were printed. This is an especially nice copy of one of the scarcest and most sought after children’s books of all time. It is the ultimate fairy book and quite possibly the most beautiful children’s book as well. (See Muir’s 5600). Rare. (SEE ALSO INSIDE REAR COVER) $7950.00

404. [OUTHWAITE, IDA RENTOUL] illus. LITTLE GREEN ROAD TO FAIRYLAND by Annie Rentoul. London: A. & C. Black 1922. 4to. An enchanting fairy tale written by Outhwaite's sister. Very scarce, especially in such nice condition. $1875.00

10 POSTERS PROMOTING WORLD PEACE

406. PACIFISM. [POSTERS FOR PEACE]. This is a folder of 10 color posters published jointly by the National Council for Prevention of War and the National Child Welfare Association in 1923. Each poster measures 11 x 14", printed on one side of the paper with a pictorial cover sheet. Each leaf features a beautiful color scene by F.L. Warren showing children from different countries: China, Russia, Italy, France, England, Germany, America, Spain, Japan and Holland. The hand lettered text in verse is meant to show that all children are good and all are alike despite physical differences. The first leaf contains the following verse: "In hearts too young for enmity / There lies the way to make men free:/ When children's friendships are world-wide, / New ages will be glorified. / Let child love child and strife will cease / Disarm the hearts, for that is Peace." The National Council for Prevention of War was founded in 1921 by Quaker pacifist Frederick J. Libby with the purposes of reducing armaments worldwide and to become the center for the distribution of peace information. $1200.00 (SEE ILLUSTRATION DIRECTLY TO THE RIGHT)
410. (PARRISH, MAXFIELD) illus. KNICKERBOCKER'S HISTORY OF NEW YORK by Washington Irving (on cover). A History of New York From The Beginning Of The World To The End Of The Dutch Dynasty by Diedrich Knickerbocker. NY: R.H. Russell, 1900 (1900). Folio (9 1/2 x 12 1/2"), cloth backed boards, pictorial paste-on. Top edge gilt, except for some spine and cover soil and rubbing. This is a near Fine copy of the 1st edition. A very early Parrish work, this features the cover plate plus 8 very wonderful black and white plates full of detail and imagination that are a perfect partner to Irving's clever parody. Printed by UPDIKE AT THE MERRYMOUNT PRESS. (See Ludwig p.25-6,30-1). A nice copy of a book that is extremely difficult to find in decent condition. $1850.00

411. PARRISH, MAXFIELD) illus. A WONDER BOOK AND TALENSWOOD TALES by Nathaniel Hawthorne. NY: Duffield, 1910 (1910). 4to (8 x 9 5/8"), cloth, pictorial paste-on, slight cover rubbing else near fine. 1st edition, illustrated with 10 magnificent color plates with lettered tissue guards plus endpapers and cover plate by Parrish as well. This is an especially nice copy. $550.00

412. PARRY, EDWARD ABBOTT. KATAWAMPUS & THE FIRST BOOK OF KRAB. Lond: William Heinemann 1927. Small 4to, cloth, near fine. The author's first book, this is a marvelous fantasy adventure first published in 1895 with the illustrations only in black & white. This edition is illustrated by ARCHIE MacGREGOR with wonderfully detailed in-text line illustrations and with 10 tipped-in color plates colored by Cynthia Moon. An uncommon edition of a classic. $250.00

413. PEAKE, MERVYN. CAPTAIN SLAUGHTERBOARD DROPS ANCHOR. Lond.: Eyre & Spottiswoode 1945. 4to, cloth, fine in dust wrapper. 1st ed. with color illustrations, being first published with plain line illustrations in 1939. The 1939 edition was destroyed by enemy action during the war, after which Peake colored the plates for the 1945 edition. The illustrations for this pirate tale are both surreal and real - full of action and humor as only Peake can do. See Whalley/ Chester History of Children's Book Illustration p.202 where they refer to this title as "one of the most astonishing picture books of the period." (SEE ILLUS TOP NEXT COLUMN) $700.00

ENGELBRECHT PEEPSHOW

417. PEEPSHOW. THE COFFEE HOUSE
by Martin Engelbrecht. Augsburg, Germany, no date, circa 1780. There are 6 hand-colored panels each 5 1/2" wide x 3 1/2" high. Each panel has cut-out hand colored scenes which, when viewed at spaced intervals, provide a three dimensional view of the interior of a German coffee house. There is much attention to detail: men and women dressed in fine clothing sit around tables and drink coffee, men stand and drink and in the rear, men are playing pool while a woman watches on the side. Martin Engelbrecht and his brother began their publishing house in Augsburg, Germany in 1719. Amongst other items, they produced the first peep shows, an early form of family entertainment. Engelbrecht peep shows were not bound together like their 19th century offspring, but were meant to be viewed on wooden frames with slats so that a family could have several different peep shows and view them interchangeably. This is a rare, early peep show offering a glimpse at life in the 18th century. $4000.00

RARE PERE CASTOR CONSTRUCTION NOVELTY BOOK

418. PEEPSHOW. SYNAGOGUE IN AMSTERDAM
by Martin Engelbrecht. Augsburg, Germany, no date, circa 1780. There are 6 hand-colored panels each 5 1/2" wide x 3 1/2" high. Each panel has cut-out hand colored scenes which, when viewed at spaced intervals, provide a three dimensional view of the interior of the Portuguese Synagogue in Amsterdam in 1780 - a synagogue that still exists today. There is much attention to detail: men with prayer shawls, candelabra for lighting, the Torah being read, etc. Martin Engelbrecht and his brother began their publishing house in Augsburg, Germany in 1719. Amongst other items, they produced the first peep shows, an early form of family entertainment. Engelbrecht peep shows were not bound together like their 19th century offspring, but were meant to be viewed on wooden frames with slats so that a family could have several different peep shows and view them interchangeably. This is a rare, early peep show. $4000.00

ROSSETTI – ONE OF ONLY 160 LARGE PAPER COPIES
492. ROSSETTI, CHRISTINA AND LAURENCE HOUSMAN. GOBLIN MARKET. London: Macmillan 1893. 4to (7 x 10 5/8”), green cloth. Cloth soiled and worn at corners; spine ends worn and label chipped. Internally tight, clean VG+. First edition thus of Rossetti’s classic poems, 1 OF ONLY 160 LARGE PAPER COPIES. The original edition was published in 1862 and was illustrated by the author’s brother Dante Gabriel Rossetti. This edition is illustrated by Laurence Housman with beautifully intricate full page (12) and smaller wood engravings that are masterpieces of detail. “The kinship with Dante Gabriel Rossetti...is evident but the overall power comes from Housman’s brilliant use of the page to create the maximum feeling of claustral compression.” (Whalley / Chester: History of Children’s Book Illus. p.137). $950.00

FINE COPY OF SEUSS’S FIRST BOOK FOR CHILDREN - SIGNED

508. SEUSS, DR. AND TO THINK THAT I SAW IT ON MULBERRY STREET. NY: Vanguard Press (1937 Second printing). 4to (8 1/2 x 11”), pictorial boards, Fine in dust wrapper (Marco’s shorts are blue on dw and book). This is a remarkable copy with none of the edge wear usually found and with just a touch of toning on the white paper spine. The dust wrapper has minimal soil and a few small tears but is one of the nicest we’ve seen. This was Seuss’ first book for children, brightly illustrated in full color and this copy is SIGNED BY SEUSS (on verso of free endpaper). It’s interesting that by the second printing the price on the dust wrapper had already gone up to $1.25 from the original $1.00. If you can’t buy a first printing, this is a great alternative to add to a Seuss collection. $1950.00

RARE SEUSS BOOK

509. [SEUSS, DR.] BECAUSE A LITTLE BUG WENT KA-CHOO by Rosetta Stone. NY: Random / Beginner Books (1975). 8vo (6 3/4 x 9 1/4”), glazed pictorial boards, Fine. 1st edition (1st printing) of this Beginner Book with I-0 code. Illustrated by Michael Frith. This was the only Beginner Book written by Seuss using the Rosetta Stone pseudonym and because of this it is not generally known that this is a Seuss book. Younger/Hirsch 4 $2000.00

LANDMARK IN CHILDREN’S LITERATURE

510. SEUSS, DR. THE CAT IN THE HAT. NY: Random House. (1957). 8vo, flat paper over boards (not glazed paper), 61p., inconspicuous owner name and date on corner of endpaper else fine in dust wrapper with price intact. Wrapper has some rubbing near lettering on spine but with no tears and very nice. 1st edition of Seuss’s first reader. The original price of this book was the cause of considerable confusion and from our research, the sequence appears to be as follows: The first reader was originally published at $2.00. It was so successful that the publisher decided to make a series of beginning readers. They planned to bind the books in glazed paper instead of flat paper. Before the next title was ready, they used the remaining sheets of the first printing and bound them using the remaining flat paper for the cover. Unsure about how to price the series, they printed additional dust wrappers identical to those on the first printing except these had no price at all. When the second title in the Beginner Book series came out, the cover was glazed paper and the Cat In The Hat followed suit. The price of 195/195 was settled on and then the wrapper text and book covers were changed completely to reflect the series. Therefore, it is safe to assume that all copies of the Cat in the Hat bound in flat paper are first states. Those with 200/200 price are first states of both the book and the dust wrapper. Those copies in flat paper with no printed price at all are first states of the book in second state dust wrappers. The importance of this book cannot be overstated. In addition to becoming a household name, the Cat In The Hat is extremely important in the history of education and children’s literature. At the same time that it was amusing, it was bringing the basic concepts of reading to tens of thousands of little children who were learning without being “taught”. It was a marked departure from the boring Dick and Jane type reader. The challenge of writing an entire book using only 220 different words and making the book enjoyable was enormous. Teachers began to use this book in their classrooms and it was not long before the Cat In The Hat became an American icon. $5000.00

PORTFOLIO OF 56 WWII PROPAGANDA CARICATURES BY ARIAS BERNAL
583. WORLD WAR II. ALBUM HISTORICO LA II GUERRA MUNDIAL. Mexico City: Carral y Carral 1945. Housed in a portfolio measuring 12 1/2 x 16" are 56 posters in the form of a full deck of playing cards by political cartoonist Antonio Arias Bernal. There are 52 posters for the complete deck plus 3 jokers and a cover plate of Hitler being torched by the flames of liberty. The folder is worn, there is some toning on a few posters and slight chipping otherwise complete and in fine condition. The illustrations trace the history of WWII from Hitler's beer hall putsch to continuous bombardment of American planes over Japan. The project was initiated by FDR to encourage those neutral South American countries to declare war on Germany. In order to reach the most people, many of whom were illiterate, the concept of using a visual deck of cards with a booklet was conceived. The project was managed by the CIAA (Coordinator of Inter American Affairs), an American propaganda agency who selected Arias Bernal, an important Mexican political caricaturist to do the work. Bernal had almost completed the work when the end of the war was in sight and the CIAA was disbanded. Bernal was permitted to finish the posters but the booklet was never produced. He printed and distributed a small, unknown number of sets himself. The text in English is inside each cover of the portfolio with commentaries on each poster. The colors are vibrant and the images striking. The 10 of clubs shows Hitler as a wind-up toy ready to invade Poland. The Ace of hearts shows Marshal Petain cowering as he gives in to the Nazis. This is an amazing piece of WWII propaganda with few complete sets surviving. (SEE ILLUS AT BOTTOM OF THIS COLUMN) $3250.00

OCCUPIED HOLLAND

586. WORLD WAR II. PHILIPS: TIJDENS DE BEZETTING [PHILIPS: DURING THE OCCUPATION]. Eindhoven, Philips Corp. 1945. 8vo (5 3/4 x 8"), pictorial wraps, near Fine. Printed on one side of the paper, each page has a full color illustration depicting events leading to the takeover of the Philips Corporation by the Nazi occupation of Holland. It presents events during the occupation including one page of concentration camp members at work in the factory. On 9 May 1940, the Philips directors learned that the German invasion of the Netherlands was to take place the following day. Having prepared for this, Anton Philips and his son in law Frans Otten, as well as other Philips family members, fled to the United States. Frits Philips, the son of Anton, was the only Philips family member to stay in the Netherlands and run the factory. He saved the lives of 382 Jews by convincing the Nazis that they were indispensable for the production process at Philips. In 1943 he was sent to a concentration camp for 4 months because a strike at his factory reduced production. For his actions in saving the hundreds of Jews, he was recognized by Yad Vashem in 1995 as a “Righteous Among the Nations”. Frits Philips has written the forward with W.F. Otten. $850.00
