MARTINDALE, William. Coca and Cocaine: Their History, Medical and Economic Uses, and Medicinal Preparations. London: H.K. Lewis 1894. Third edition. 16mo. 76pp. Contemporary owner name, a little foxing, one preliminary leaf slightly misbound, but all leaves present, a near fine copy. Sherlock Holmes' copy – not. #98501 ................................................................. $375

(Mystery) MAGER, Gus. Hawkshaw the Detective. Akron, Ohio: Saalfield Publishing Co. 1917. First edition. Oblong quarto. Illustrated wraps. Cheap paper browned with a few very small chips in the margins, some soiling and faint creases to the wrappers, but a solid good or better copy of this syndicated cartoon parody of Sherlock Holmes that appeared in newspaper in the first part of the century. #283466 .................... $200

(Mystery) CRABB, Arthur. *Samuel Lyle Criminologist. New York: Century Co. 1920. First edition. Endpapers foxed, else near fine in a near very good dustwrapper, lacking the bottom inch of the spine and with the folds professionally restored with archival tape. The jacket claims this collection of detective stories is "As fascinating as an Old-Time Sherlock Holmes Story." Rare in jacket. #57150 ........................................ $450

(Mystery) DERLETH, August. "In Re: Sherlock Holmes". Sauk City WI: Mycroft & Moran 1945. First edition. Foreword by Vincent Starrett. Fine in fine dustwrapper with just a touch of rubbing at the spinal extremities. One of 3000 copies. The first book issued under this publisher's imprint, 19 pastiches of the sacred writings. #32574 ........................................ $475 $122.5

(Mystery, Sherlockiana) BOUCHER, Anthony. Typed Letter Signed to Arthur Lovell: Quarto leaf. Folded as mailed, else fine. Dated 22 March 1953 on the letterhead of Fantasy and Science Fiction. An attempt to order the second printing of Adrian Conan Doyle's The True Conan Doyle, and the second issue of the American edition: "In both cases its the 2nd I want – I have the 1sts, & there are some minor bibliographical problems I hope to straighten out." He also mentions: "I believe I'm still on your mailing list as Wm A.P. White. Since I've dropped the White name almost completely, especially professionally, maybe you'd better relist me as Boucher. Incidentally, I'm always very much in the market for any good copies of the 1st ed of my Case of the Baker Street Irregulars." An interesting letter. #86125 $150

(Mystery) DOYLE, Adrian Conan and CARR, John Dickson. The Exploits of Sherlock Holmes. New York: Random House (1954). First American edition. Very good with some fading at the spine ends, very light edgewear, in a very good dustwrapper with chips along the top edges and at the bottom of the spine, light edgewear. #319766 $70
