2020 marks my 30th year of bookselling under my own name. I helped out at the bookshops owned by my parents and older brother Stephen from my early teens and obviously absorbed some knowledge, perhaps without even realising it at the time. In 1990, aged 23, I started running books to other dealers, then progressed to a stall in Portobello Road Market, shops in Barnes and East Sheen in South west London and am now dealing from home in West London. I have exhibited at hundreds of bookfairs, in England, Ireland, Canada, Hong Kong and several cities in USA and issued dozens of catalogues and have handled very many beautiful and rare books and met lots of great people. It has been a privilege and a joy and the last 30 years have flown by. To quote Mark Twain “Find a job you enjoy doing, and you will never have to work a day in your life”.

1. ACCUM. FREDRICK. (Friedrich Christian). A TREATISE ON THE ART OF BREWING. Exhibiting the London Practice of Brewing, Porter, Brown, Stout, Ale, Table Beer, and Various Other Kinds of Malt Liquors. Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme and Brown. London. 1820
FIRST EDITION. 12mo. (7.7 x 4.7 inches). xiv, 268pp, xxiv of publishers adverts. Hand coloured copper engraved frontis and title page by W. Read. Tissue guard to frontis is torn, without loss, to the margin. Two folding tables and one engraving, of a saccharometer, in the text. A wide margined copy with all edges untrimmed, as published. Some light foxing to the first quarter of the book and a stain to the inner margin of the first half dozen leaves otherwise a clean copy. Finely bound in recent, period style half mid brown calf. Spine with five raised bands. Compartments ruled, lettered and decorated in gilt. Tan title label, gilt. Marbled paper on boards. Previous owners colour printed bookplate on front pastedown endpaper. An attractive copy of this rare book.
£1,200

REPRINT OF 1928 ONE VOLUME EDITION. xviii, 1421pp. Large 8vo. (8.7 x 5.8 inches). Some very light spotting to both sets of blank free endpapers, otherwise a fine bright copy. Finely bound, to style, in early full blue calf by Riviere. Spines with five raised bands, each with gilt piping. Twin brown labels, lettered and ruled in gilt. Compartments triple ruled and elaborately decorated in gilt. Gilt triple ruled border on both boards. Gilt inner dentelles. Marbled endpapers. All edges gilt. A couple of small scratches and some areas of fading to the boards where the book has sat on a shelf next to smaller volumes and the exposed areas have been sunned but overall this is still a very attractive early leather binding.
£750

FIVE VOLUMES. 8vo. (7.5 x 5.2 inches). All third editions, third impressions, except volume two (Emma) which is 3rd Edition, fourth impression, published in the same year. Illustrated throughout with 49 mono plates, including plans of Georgian London and Bath. The set is finely bound in recent full tan morocco, spines with raised bands, red title labels, gilt. Compartments ruled, lettered and decorated in gilt. Boards with gilt ruled borders. Top edges gilt. A fine set of this important edition which contains facsimiles of the original title pages, notes, and various appendices giving chronologies, indexes of characters and general indexes of real persons and places. In Geoffrey Keynes Bibliography of the works of Jane Austen he states that this edition is the most authoritative text published and is never likely to be improved. An interesting scholarly edition in attractive leather bindings.

4. AUSTEN. JANE. PRIDE AND PREJUDICE. In Two volumes. By the Author of "Sense and Sensibility," &c. Printed for T. Egerton, Military Library, Whitehall, London. 1817
THIRD EDITION. The first to be published in 2 Volumes. 12mo. (7.3 x 4.5 inches). Bound without half titles and terminal blank in volume one, as is often the case, otherwise complete. Collation: Volume I. Title page, (1) - 289 pages ('London, Printed by C. Roworth, Bell-Yard, Temple-bar', on verso of page 289). --- Volume II. Title page, (1) - 311 pages ('London, Printed by C. Roworth, Bell-Yard, Temple-bar', at the bottom of page 311 below Finis). Page 7 of volume one has a one inch tear to the margin, without loss and the fore edge of page 27 is a little frayed, well away from the printed area. Repair to the bottom corner (3 x 1.4 inches) of page 111, without loss. Slight lean to the boards and some foxing throughout but still generally a good, sound copy. Finely bound, to style, in mid twentieth century half brown polished calf. Spines ruled, lettered and decorated in gilt. Tan title labels, gilt. Marbled paper on boards. Plain off-white endpapers. An attractively bound copy.
Pride and Prejudice, always the most popular of her titles with the general reader, was the only one of Jane Austen’s novels to reach a third edition by its original publisher, though whether it did so during her lifetime is a moot point. She died on 18 July 1817 and the earliest recorded ownership signature on a copy of the third edition is dated 6 September of that year. — Keynes 15; Gilson A5x.

6. AUSTEN, JANE.
Thomson. Hugh. Illustrates. PRIDE AND PREJUDICE.
With a preface by George Saintsbury. George Allen. London, 1894

FIRST HUGH THOMSON EDITION. The larger, untrimmed issue. 8vo. (7.9 x 5.4 inches). Fully illustrated throughout with over 100 fine engravings by Thomson. A bright, clean copy finely bound in recent full dark green morocco, spine with five raised bands, the compartments ruled, lettered and decorated with gilt. Twin red labels, gilt. Single ruled gilt border on boards. Top edge gilt, others untrimmed. ----- One of an unspecified number of copies which were issued by the publishers with untrimmed fore and lower page edges, presumably for re-binding as they were issued in a plain green binding with a printed paper label. A near fine copy of the scarce first Thomson edition in an attractive full leather binding, Hugh Thomson illustrated this work for George Allen publishers before going on to illustrate the other Austen books for Macmillan & Co. This is the scarcest of all the Thomson/Austen titles in first edition.

£1,000

7. BAGNOLD, ENID.

10. BEARDSLEY, AUBREY.

LIMITED EDITION. 4to (10.3 x 8.1 inches). One of 25 numbered copies printed on Japanese vellum. The title-page is printed in red and black. Illustrated with 7 full page plates and two illustrations within the text by Beardsley. Original publishers pictorial vellum gilt binding with design by Beardsley in gilt. Top edge gilt. Vellum is bowed and has lifted, particularly to about half of the rear board. Edges and the spine a little darkened but the gilt is still strong and bright. One of the great rarities of Beardsley’s books. --- The Rape of the Lock was praised universally by critics at the turn of the century, after Beardsley was dead. ...a new technical device occurred to the illustrator: he began to use dotted lines in quantity to give stippled effects... In most of them the scenes are treated as pictorial dramas with great restraint: space is understood and implied by the artist’s completely personal craft...” (Brian Reade, Beardsley, London: Studio Vista, 1967, p. 181). --- Later 105.

£10,000

11. BETJEMAN, JOHN.
SUMMONED BY BELLS. John Murray. London, 1960

£350

12. BOLAN, MARC.
THE WARLOCK OF LOVE. Lupus Music. 1969

FIRST EDITION. 8vo. (8.7 x 5.6 inches). A very good, bright copy in the pictorial boards which show a black and white photo portrait of Bolan. Front board and spine lettered in white. In the original dustwrapper which reproduces the boards. Just a hint of rubbing to the extremities of the boards and some creases to the edges of the wrapper but overall a very good copy throughout.

£375

13. BOOK BOX. Faux books.

40-sized. (27.5 x 20.5 x 5.8 cm) box consisting of two 20th-century half call bindings with marbled boards and rich gilt spines, than resembling a pile of two books. A very nice ‘book- alike’, hiding top-quality contents in excellent condition: inside is a fine, large compass in a wooden box, an Austrian stainless steel Inox Triplex windproof lighter (probably dating from 1957), a vintage French Laguiole folded knife, an octagonal glass, and a small, full bottle with leather cover and bronze vignette with mother-of-pearl inlay mounted, and original bottle cap with an early Jägermeister logo. The Jägermeister brand was launched in 1934 and almost immediately quite successful. All items are neatly arranged in a custom-made frame with recesses with marbled sides. Outside with the usual wear (as intended, to look inconspicuous and innocent), inside in fine, clean condition.

£1,500

52. DAVIES, W. ROBERTSON. SHAKESPEARE'S BOY ACTORS. J. M. Dent & Sons Ltd. London. 1939

First Edition of the author’s first book. Illustrated with 8 mono plates. Many copies were pulped during the war making this a scarce title. In a letter to a collector written in 1951 Davies reported having no spare copies of this book and that his best guess was that no more than 600 were in existence. Original blue cloth with blind stamped device to upper board, titles to spine gilt, top edge stained blue. With the rare dustjacket. Spine with five raised bands, the compartments ruled, decorated and lettered in gilt. Red title label, gilt. Single gilt ruled border on boards. Top edge gilt, others untrimmed. A lovely copy of this famous work.

Each mounted onto card with a printed border and protected with a tissue guard. The title of each picture printed on the guard in brown ink. The colour plates measure 14.9 x 9.6 inches. The card mounts measure 20 x 15 inches. They are housed in the original publishers portfolio with printed title and publication details to front panel. Spine and board corners in beige cloth. Cloth ties to top edge missing but the original ties to the fore edge are intact. Printed label on inside of front board with the limitation details and numbered and signed by Detmold. This is copy number 204 of only 500 sets produced. The illustrations are held in place with brown card fold-overs to the top and bottom, the fold over at the fore edge is missing. Overall a very good set of these beautiful plates. It is rare to find a complete set of all 24 plates still in the original publishers portfolio, many having been framed to hang on walls.

FIRST U. S. EDITION. 8vo. (8.4 x 5.8 inches). A clean and bright copy in a fine leather binding of recent full dark blue morocco. Spine with five raised bands, the compartments ruled, decorated and lettered in gilt. Red title label, gilt. Single gilt ruled border on boards. Top edge gilt, others untrimmed. A lovely copy of this

FIRST EDITION. Colonial Issue. 8vo. (7.4 x 5.3 inches). Illustrated with sixteen mono plates by Sidney Paget. Tissue guard to the frontpiece. A few of the plates are bound in different places than listed on the contents page but all are present. 4 pages of publishers adverts for the colonial library at the rear of the book. The text and illustrations are fine, clean and bright throughout and look unread. Publishers decorative green cloth which has dark blue illustration to the front board and spine. Gilt lettering to the spine. Decorative light blue and white floral endpapers with ship and swan designs. There are a couple of small closed tears to the spine and the cloth is a bit rubbed and bumped and has a few small marks but is generally in very good condition with the gilt on the spine still quite bright.

58. DULAC, EDMUND.

EARLY DULAC EDITION. Large 4to. (11.2 x 8.8 inches). 20 mounted colour plates on vellum like sheets, framed with decorative border design. Each plate coated with printed tissue paper guard, some of these a bit creased but complete. A lovely bright copy in publishers original full red cloth with elaborate gilt lettering and decoration to front board and spine. Near previous owner name and date on the front free endpaper. A very good copy with only some minimal rubbing to boards and offsetting to blank endpapers. Gilt still fresh and bright. Overall a very good copy. --- Hughey. Edmund Dulac. His book illustrations. A Bibliography; 22m.

Price: £225

59. DULAC, EDMUND.

Illustrates. Lyric PATHETIC & HUMOROUS, FROM A TO Z. Frederick Warne & Co. London, 1908

FIRST EDITION. 4to. (10.8 x 8.5 inches). Fully illustrated with 24 wonderful full colour plates (XYZ appear together on one page) within a border and above a humorous verse, plus 2 double page decorative line drawings, printed in different shades of brown on parchment paper, for the endpapers. Colour pages are printed on one side only. A bright and clean copy throughout. Publishers original grey/dark green paper covered, bevelled edged, boards with lettering and illustration to the front board by Dulac, printed in gold, white, orange and light green. Rear board with circular design printed in white, gold and green. Plain yellow cloth spine. Some minor marking to the spine but overall a lovely clean, tight, near fine copy. Among the artists best and most imaginative works, this title is also one of the rarest books that he illustrated. The humour in his verse is far surpassed by the comical imagination of the plates and shows the lighter side of Dulac’s nature. The plates have all the decoration and style of those painted for the Arabian Nights and Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam but also have a sense of fun equal to that of William Heath Robinson. Dulac at his very best. Hughey 18.

Price: £1,250

61. EINSTEIN, ALBERT.

FIRST EDITION. 8vo. (7.7 x 5.2 inches). Portrait frontispiece and five line diagrams within the text. 8pp of publishers adverts at the back of the book. There is some offsetting to the blank endpapers otherwise this is a very good fresh copy throughout. Publishers original red cloth with blind stamped lettering to front board, within a blind ruled border, and gilt lettering and ruling to spine. Spine lettering is dulled and the cloth is a bit toned but overall a very good copy. ----- This important translation, apart from being from the first English edition, also contains new text written by Einstein specially for this edition; Appendix III, The Experimental Confirmation of the General Theory of Relativity.

From the library of noted scholar of 18th century literature and art, John Cabell Rieley, and with his bookplate to the past-down endpapers. General wear and bright throughout. Boards show some rubbing to the edges and a few marks but overall the set is very good indeed. A remarkable survivor and rare in the original publishers boards.
£1,250

The original manuscript maquette of Goodall’s wordless picture book, Creepy Castle, which would be published in 1975 by Macmillan in London and Atheneum in New York. 2 pen and watercolour manuscripts, 1 oblong octavo (190 x 140 mm) and 1 square octavo (135 x 166 mm). Volume I: loose gatherings with illustrated wrappers, 15 double page drawings (196 x 134 mm), of which all but one feature a flap which changes the scene, and 2 single page drawings (182 x 134 mm). Volume II: bound with illustrated self-wrappers, 4 double page drawings (153 x 114 mm), one of which features 3 flaps that change the scene. Together with a copy of the US first edition of the complete book in the original pink boards and jacket. Extremities slightly rubbed and bumped, a few small nicks and light creases to wrappers of Volume I. An excellent set with bright and crisp watercolour drawings. While the published book conveys Goodall (1908–1996)’s inventive approach to the picture book format, it fails to fully transmit the delicate lines and colouring of the artist’s lovely illustrations, as evident in the current manuscript.

73. GREENE, GRAHAM. THE LAWLESS ROADS. A Mexican Journey. Longmans, Green and Co. London 1939
FIRST EDITION. 8vo. Illustrated with ten mono photos, nine of which were taken by the Author, and a colour printed map to the endpapers. A fine and bright copy of the book in publishers second state binding with black lettering to the spine. Neat previous owner’s name on the half title page—otherwise a fresh clean and tight copy. Original colour dustwrapper with the colours still strong and unfaded. The wrapper is price clipped to the inner front flap but otherwise a near fine example and uncommon in such nice condition. A superior copy.
£1,000

Small 8vo. (6.2 x 4 inches). Fine early twentieth century full vellum hand painted binding. Fine binding decorated with a painted scene on the front cover depicting a woman and two children in a rustic garden scene, the spine is decorated with a matching design of a variety of painted flowers and the back cover has a single painted flower in the bottom left corner. Marbled endpapers. All edges gilt. The book is miss-titled in gilt and black on the spine reading ‘The Christian Year’ so the binder may have been working on one book at a time and got two mixed up. The binding is unrestored but similar to several made by the Royal School of Art Needlework around the same period and is in remarkably good condition, only some slight wear on the border of the front cover and the gilded bands on the spine-ends.

A circular brown mark to the outer margin of four leaves, otherwise a clean and bright copy in a fine early binding, for Hatchards of Piccadilly, probably by Sangorski and Sutcliffe, but not signed. Full brown morocco. Spine with five raised bands. Compartments lettered, double ruled and decorated with triple dot corner design in gilt. Both boards with double ruled gilt outer borders and double ruled inner panel design with dots to the outer line and floral design, with green dyed centre dots, in each corner. Title lettered in gilt to front board. Board edges ruled in gilt. Inner boards with triple gilt ruled borders to the turn-ins. All edges gilt. Previous owner’s armorial bookplate to the front paste down endpaper. A very attractive copy. --- This edition omits the fourth book of this work, concerning the Roman Catholic mass.

94. KEYNES, JOHN MAYNARD.
THE GENERAL THEORY OF EMPLOYMENT INTEREST AND MONEY. Macmillan and co. Limited. London. 1936
FIRST EDITION. 1st printing. 8vo. (8.7 x 5.6 inches). A previous owner has written their name on the title page and there are a few previous owner’s ink marks on pages 3 and 4, otherwise a near fine bright copy internally, the pages crisp and clean throughout. Original publishers blue cloth with gilt lettering and ruling to spine. Corners a little rubbed, a couple of small marks to the boards and very mild fading to the spine but overall this is a very good copy of the first edition, first printing of this classic and influential work. Printing and the mind of man, No.423.

95. KING, JESSIE M.
Illustration. GEMMELL, MARION. ---- Signed by Author. MUMMY’S BEDTIME STORY BOOK. BY MARION. Cecil Palmer. London. No Date. 1929
FIRST EDITION. 4to. (11.3 x 9 inches). Inscribed by the author on the blank verso of the frontpiece To Iva with very best wishes from Marion A Gemmell 28 Aug 47. · 5000, plus a set of colour illustrated (yellow and blue) endpapers by King. Fully illustrated with Frontpiece and 11 full page plates, plus several smaller colour illustrations, in fact every page is illustrated, in the margins of the text pages. Original full colour paper covered boards by King. Some light foxing to a few pages and board edges suffering from some minor rubbing and bumping to the edges otherwise a very good copy of this fragile and beautiful book. An uncommon title, rare signed by the author.

96. KIPLING, RUDYARD.
FIRST SEPARATE EDITION (U. S). Precedes the first U.K separate edition by 4 years. Oblong 8vo. (4.4 x 6.4 inches). 8 double leaves, uncut at the top. Each double leaf has a dark green rule and dot border, the text printed in black with green initial letters. Half title has “IF” printed in green within an ornamental black panel, the same printed in red and black onto the front board, with the addition of the author’s name. Previous owners near early presentation inscription in light pencil on the front free blank endpaper, a small bookbinder label on front pastedown endpaper, otherwise a very clean and bright copy in original light brown boards (Ripshids - binding variant iii), the pages sewn in with a tied yellow braided cord. The Publishers note on page 5 appears in four different variants, with priority unknown, and this copy has variant ii. ------ An attractive copy of this uncommon little book. Published (probably November 1910) very shortly after the Poem first appeared in the book Rewards and Fairies (October 1910), this separate publication was issued to capitalise on the huge, and instant, popularity of what has become Kipling’s most enduring work of verse. A poll taken by the BBC in the UK in 2005 voted it as Britain’s favourite Poem, polling twice as many votes as the number 2 choice, Lord Tennyson’s The Lady of Shallot. Originaly written in 1899, IF was inspired by the actions of Dr. Leander Starr Jameson, a British Officer whose forces were defeated by the Boers in 1899, but who was portrayed as a victorious hero by the British press, the poem is a powerful masterclass in maintaining the British stiff upper lip. --- Richards, A244.

97. KIPLING, RUDYARD.
FIRST EDITIONS. Two volumes. 8vo. With illustrations by J. L. Kipling, W. H. Drake and P. Frenzeny. A remarkably clean and fresh set with absolutely no foxing or marking in either volume, they look unread. Original blue cloth with gilt illustrations to front boards and spines, which are also lettered in gilt. All edges gilt. No cracking or splitting of the inner hinges, a problem common with these titles. Some very minor rubbing to the extremities of the cloth bindings, mainly on The Jungle Book, but still overall a very near fine, tight and fresh set of these classic books. A superior set and a rare survivor in such lovely condition.

106. LAWRENCE, RICHARD.
AN INQUIRY INTO THE STRUCTURE & ANIMAL ECONOMY OF THE HORSE. Comprehending the diseases to which his limbs and feet are subject, with proper directions for shoeing, and pointing out a method for ascertaining his age until his twelfth year. To which is added, an attempt to explain the laws of his progressive motion, on mechanical and anatomical principles. Printed for the Author. Birmingham. 1801

FIRST EDITION. 4to. (10.5 x 8.6 inches). Illustrated with 18 fine copper engravings by the author, including five fold out. Fifteen of the plates have a page of descriptive text opposite. A crisp, well-margined copy bound in recent full brown morocco binding. Spine with raised bands, gilt. Double ruled gilt border on boards. Matted endpapers. Some offsetting from the plates, reproducing a mirror image on the opposite page, otherwise a lovely bright and clean copy of this uncommon work. Lawrence, a Veterinary Surgeon based in Birmingham, disagreed with the conventional theory of the time and accurately describes the way Horses gallop. He was proved right when the advent of stop frame photography allowed the motion to be recorded for the first time. — Loosely inserted, but unconnected with the book, is a folding copper engraved page from Hall's encyclopaedia, undated but circa 1790's, showing three images of the anatomy of the Horse.

116. MATHESON, Anne.
LOVE'S MUSIC AND OTHER POEMS. Sampson, Low, Marston and Company. London. 1894

FIRST EDITION. 8vo. (7.4 x 5 inches). Some light foxing to a most pages but generally a very good copy in an attractive early twentieth century arts and crafts style binding of red/brown morocco. Spine with raised bands, each decorated with gilt dots. Compartments ruled and lettered in gilt. Decorative gilt tooled borders on both boards with double ruled lines and floral corner pieces. Triple gilt ruled lines on turn-ins, with gilt dots in the corners. All edges gilt. A little rubbing to the extremities but overall a nice and attractively bound copy of this scarce work. — Best known for her biography of Florence Nightingale, Matheson wrote several volumes of poetry. This collection was her second. Critics at St. James Gazette pointed out that she was “not one of those women poets who strive to write as men; she has the characteristics of her sex, and is before all things gentle, sympathetic, humane.”

First Editions. Quartos. Mimeograph stapled magazines. Original issues of numbers one to twelve, a complete run of the Fanzine (two supplements, or special issues, were published but are not present here). Complete with the original first disc single Love Lies Limp, by Alternative TV on SG Records as issued with number 12. All issues are generally in very good condition, with some staple rust to a couple of volumes, two dried tears to the rear wrapper of volume two, and the odd finger mark to margins here and there. Housed in a purpose made chemise and black cloth slipcase with leather label to the spine, ruled and lettered in gilt. --- Sniffin' Glue, the first punk fanzine, was produced by Mark Perry in July 1976 a few days after seeing US punk band The Ramones for the first time at the Roundhouse in London. He took the title from a Ramones song 'Now I Wanna Snuff Some Glue'. The early days of the Punk movement largely failed to attract the attention of television or the mainstream press, and Sniffin' Glue remains a key source of photographs, interviews and information about, contributors to the scene. NME acclaimed "Sniffin' Glue" as "the nastiest, healthiest and funniest piece of information about, contributors to the punk movement. For the final issue Mark's sidekick Sniffin' Glue photographer, business affairs and later band manager Harry Murlowski recorded Love Lies Limp released as a flexi disc record, the first release from Mark Perry's band, Alternative TV. Fearing absorption into the mainstream music press, Perry ceased publications in 1977. In the last issue he encouraged his readers to follow him with their own punk fanzines.

175. TOLKIEN, J. R. R.
THREE VOLUMES. Large 8vo. (9 x 6 inches). 12th/9th/9th impressions of the first edition of the text. Each volume with fold out map at end. Page top edges stained red. Publishers red cloth, spines with gilt ring device and lettering, which is still bright. Neat inscription, dated 1962, to the front free endpaper of the first volume and somebody has tried to decipher the printed symbols across the top of the page, in ink below. Some minor marking and spotting to the fore edges but overall the pages are clean and bright throughout. Original price clipped from the dustwrapper but generally very good indeed internally. Publishers deep red cloth binding with gilt lettering and ring device to the spine. The spine is dulled and there are a few light but small stains to the cloth at the edges. The original, correct 1st state, dustwrapper still has the price intact on the inner flap. There is a split, without loss, to the top third of the front hinge but this is not noticeable when enclosed in a protective sleeve. The spine is darkened and there are a few very small chips to the edges at the hinges. Overall a very good book in a near to very good dustwrapper. Only 2529 copies were published of this, the true first edition, first printing of the second part of Tolkien's epic tale.

180. W. R. TYMMS, and WYATT. M. D(ighy).
-- Fine binding by The Ashley Bindery. THE ART OF ILLUMINATING. As Practised in Europe From the Earliest Times. Illustrated by Borders, Initial Letters and Alphabets, Selected and Chromolithographed by W. R. Tymms. With an Essay and Instructions by M. D.
Wyatt Archt. Day and Son. Lithographers to the Queen.
London. Published April 2nd 1860. 1860
FIRST EDITION. 4to. (11.6 x 8.1 inches). Illustrated with a total of 102 fine full page Chromolithographic plates; Half title, title page, 99 numbered plates - each with a tissue paper guard, and the colophon leaf. 104 pgs of text, printed in black within decorative red borders. A fine copy in a beautiful designer binding by The Ashley Bindery, of Somerset. Stamped to the rear inner board- 19 AB 81. Full black morocco with multi colour design of two boxed lines in brown morocco across both boards and the spine, with tan, green and red design within each box.
The spine is also lettered in gilt. Wood effect endpapers. All design, edged with gilt dots and within a single gilt ruled border.
Board edges with single gilt ruled lines. Inner boards with four gilt ruled lines and decorative corner designs. Soft tan leather effect paper on the boards and a black morocco spine, lettered in gilt and with one of the red designs onlaid between the title and authors. This then fits into a felt lined slip case covered with the wood effect paper. A fine and beautiful binding. --- A previous owner has written neatly in pencil on the front blank free depthpaper that they bought this from Mr Ashley of the Ashley Bindery in 1981 for £100, also stating that Mrs Ashley designed the binding. I assume that they mean Mr and Mrs Lewis who owned the bindery.

181. WADDINGTON. SAMUEL. Edits.
ENGLISH SONNETS. By Poets of the past. Edited by 1888
Second edition. 8vo. (6.5 x 4.2 inches). Possibly the Author’s own copy. A word in one Keats poem has been corrected in ink and initialed ‘S. W. 1921’ in the margin. A fine copy in a beautiful fine leather binding. Full dark blue morocco. Spine with raised bands. The compartments lettered, ruled and decorated in gilt.
Both boards with decorative black and grey leather onlaid border design, edged with gilt dots and within a single gilt ruled border.
Board edges with single gilt ruled lines. Inner boards with four gilt ruled lines and decorative corner designs. Soft tan leather depapers. All edges gilt. A fine and beautiful early twentieth century leather binding. The book is housed in a custom two piece slip case with felt lining in the lower part where the book slides into a blue leather entry case within a brown morocco tissue book. When the top is placed on the whole case resembles a full morocco bound volume with raised bands and blind tooled ruled lines and lettering. A truly beautiful and finely executed delux leather binding. The binding is unsigned but certainly the work of a master bookbinder.
